

CALIFORNIA IS NOT REJOICING

Suits To Test The Anti-Mongolian School Laws Ordered Started By Officials.

MESSAGE DID NOT PLEASE CITIZENS

Strong Sentiment Against The Radical Measures Suggested By President Is Shown Throughout All California.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 5.—The effect of President Roosevelt's threat to send troops to California if necessary, to compel no discrimination against Japanese children in the schools, was felt this morning when orders were received by representatives of the department of justice in California to test the legality of the state statute which provides that children of Mongolian descent shall attend separate schools.

Suits to Start
Beyond the investigation the department of justice received orders to start suits to test the legality of the state law and this will undoubtedly bring a culmination of the affair almost immediately. The so-called interference of Roosevelt in this matter is not looked upon with favor by the Californians and much complaint is heard of the President's message.

No Difference
When the attention of the President of the Board of Education was called to this order from Washington, and to the portion of the message which related to the Japanese question, he said that it would have no effect upon any possible action of the board.

Withdraw Children
So intense is the feeling expressed in different sections of the city many threats have been made of withdrawing the white children from the schools if Mongolians are permitted to attend. There is also talk of swinging California into the democratic columns under the slogan: "The democratic party is the white man's party." Race prejudice appears to have been created stronger than ever.

SEVERAL HUNDRED MEET AT IOWA'S INVITATION

Popular Election Of Senators Will Be Discussed By Distinguished Leaders In Politics.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 5.—Several hundred delegates, appointed by the governors of a majority of the states of the Union, all men of earnest thought, devoted to the best interests of the country, have gathered in this city to discuss means of bringing about the election of United States senators by direct vote.

Governor Cummins, acting in pursuance of a resolution adopted by the last session of the Iowa general assembly, issued the call for the conference, the stated purpose being to exchange ideas and to recommend informally some solution of the problem.

The conference has attracted much attention as it is the first effort to organize the sentiment already existing in favor of the popular election of senators. That this sentiment is steadily growing is evidenced by the action of a large number of states during the past year in selecting their candidates for the United States senate by popular vote of the members of the party, expressed to them in primary elections. Eleven Southern states were Arkansas, Alabama, Florida, Kentucky, Georgia, Louisiana, South Carolina, Mississippi, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia.

Although the sentiment for popular election of senators appears to be more deeply grounded in the Southern states than in other parts of the country, the idea has gathered weight in the North and West in states that have been generally considered fighting territory for both parties. Illinois recently held a primary for the election of a senator, and the party conventions of Iowa and Wisconsin have declared in favor of the method. In Vermont and New Hampshire the agitation for the proposed reform has gained considerable headway.

About the only thing the present conference can achieve, is to effect an organization which may crystallize the sentiment and give the movement such an impetus that the desired amendment may be obtained by one or the other methods fixed by the Constitution.

It is the general opinion among those present that ten years at least will be necessary to accomplish the proposed reform. There are two ways of getting an amendment before the people for vote. Congress can act on its own initiative in submitting an amendment to popular vote or it may be compelled to do so upon the demand of two-thirds of the state legislatures. The question must then be voted upon at a general election.

On several occasions the lower house of congress has passed the desired resolution, but the senate has invariably killed it. Many of the foremost opponents of the measure were Senators Vest of Missouri, Chandler of New Hampshire, Hawley of Connecticut and Hoar of Massachusetts. Others who have fought the amendment are still there, however, among them being Foraker of Ohio, Spooner of Wisconsin, Penrose of Pennsylvania, Dewey of New York and Pettus and Morgan of Alabama.

FISHERIES TANGLE TO BE CLEARED UP

Newfoundland Cases Will Be Explained by Ambassador Reid, Soon to Sail for America.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Washington, D. C., Dec. 5.—Considerable interest is manifested by State Department officials in the visit of Ambassador Whitelaw Reid, who sails from England for the United States today. Though no official announcement has been made in regard to the matter it is generally believed that the Ambassador is bringing with him important data regarding the Newfoundland fishing cases that may result in a complete understanding concerning recent arrests of Colonial fishermen on board the American vessels for violation of the bait act.

ONE OF THE PICKETS TELLS A NEW STORY

Interesting Gossip is Brought Out in the Shea Trial This Morning.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Chicago, Dec. 5.—In the Shea conspiracy trial today Joseph Schultz, who pleaded guilty to the charge of conspiracy, testified he formerly was a member of the truck drivers' union and during the teamsters' strike in 1905, said he was employed as a picket by Shea at the request of Timothy Finn, a saloonkeeper. He declared he received orders from Finn to allow no wagons to deliver goods to Montgomery Ward & Co., that he stopped ten wagons in one day. He mentioned men on trial with Shea as being among the men around Montgomery Ward's store.

MATCHES EXPLODED; FOUR ARE BURNED

Explosion in Match Factory Causes Fire and a Serious Panic Today.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Indianapolis, Dec. 5.—Four girls were perhaps fatally burned and crushed in a panic caused by an explosion in a match factory in West Indianapolis today.

RUNS AMUCK WHILE ARMED WITH A GUN

Crazy Man Shoots and Stabs Five Men and a Policeman Kills Him.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Ashtabula, O., Dec. 5.—After John H. Keajampa, a Finn, while crazy drunk last night, had run amuck with a revolver and knife, and had stabbed five men more, or less seriously, Policeman Hummer in attempting to arrest Keajampa, shot and killed the latter.

WOULD MAKE TERMS TWO YEARS LONGER

President and Vice President Should Have Six Years in Office is the Idea.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Chicago, Dec. 5.—The National Business League today adopted and forwarded to Senator Cullom and Representative Lowden for introduction in the senate and house, a resolution fixing the presidential term at six years.

IMMENSE ESTATE IS HINGING ON MEMORY

Heirs of Vast Estate Try to Prove Ownership to Billions in New York City.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 5.—Upon the memory of Henry Forncrook, aged eighty-four, living a "recluse" life in Jefferson county, Wis., seems to hang the destiny of property worth fifteen billions of dollars. He is a member of the Forncrook family now distributed all over the United States, several residing in Colorado, who are forming a syndicate to get hold of the site of Old Trinity church and neighboring buildings in New York. It is claimed that the Forncrooks were given the site before 1800, leased the land, and that the lease expired in 1870, but the claim was thus lost as the parchment title was missing. Henry Forncrook says today he had the parchment for years, studied it, chased chickens and dogs with it, and probably lost it in the woods years ago.

MAY HAVE TO BUILD NEW SCHOOL HOUSE

Beloit High School Too Small For Present Quota of Pupils—Other Line City News.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Beloit, Dec. 5.—At a meeting of the school board last evening it was decided to hold a special meeting within the next ten days to discuss the present overcrowding of the local high school building. The building is far too small for the number of pupils who desire to be accommodated and recitation rooms are being used as study rooms by several of the classes. There is some talk of a new building being built within the next year.

James Smith, colored, was fined five dollars and costs this morning, it being charged he went into the Chicago Bazaar yesterday and broke considerable china while under the influence of liquor. Smith denied being drunk but paid his fine.

Long Lost Brother
W. H. Calvert, who has been in business in Beloit for fifty years, was surprised by a visit from his brother, David Calvert, whom he has not seen in twenty-eight years. David Calvert is in a soldier's home in Kansas and was on his way east.

WISCONSIN PASTOR TO AID IN WORK WITH LUTHER BURBANK

Eau Claire Pastor is to Spend Some Months in Santa Rosa in the Work.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Eau Claire, Dec. 5.—Dr. Martin, pastor of the First Methodist church, has been granted a vacation to assist in preparing with Luther Burbank material for publication. He goes to Santa Rosa, Cal., Burbank's home. Rev. James Evans will supply Dr. Martin's pulpit here.

ELECTION EXPENSES

Accounts of election expenses were filed by several newly-elected officers today. County Treasurer Oliver P. Smith, County Clerk Howard Lee, and Register of Deeds C. H. Weirich each contributed $12 to the county committee's fund. Assemblyman-elect Simon Smith expended $26.35 and District Attorney John L. Fisher paid out $32.77. Of this amount $71.50 was for printing.

BIG TOE GRAFTED ON THUMB'S STUMP

Berlin Surgeon Performs Wonderful Operation on Youth—New Thumb Looks Natural.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Berlin, Dec. 5.—One of the most remarkable operations in the annals of modern surgery has just been successfully performed in Berlin. The person upon whom the operation was performed was a youth who had suffered the loss of his right thumb through an accident with a chaff-cutting machine. To replace the missing member it was decided to amputate his big toe and graft it on the stump. For 17 days the patient was made to lie in a bent position, with the thumb joined to the partly removed toe in plaster splints, an ordeal which the sufferer heroically supported. The flesh having in that period grown together, it was then possible to sever the toe from the foot entirely. After four months' time the healing process was complete, and now the patient possesses a new thumb that can be barely distinguished in appearance from the real member, and is almost as useful.

GROWERS OF FRUIT IN VERMONT ARE GATHERED

Burlington, Vt., Dec. 5.—In Armory today the fruit growers of Vermont assembled for the twelfth annual meeting of their state association.

At the initial session this afternoon Mayor Burke delivered an address of welcome and President E. S. Brigham of St. Albans presented his annual address. The program arranged for tomorrow's sessions provides for papers and discussions treating of many phases of the fruit growing industry.

CHAGRES RIVER ON RAMPAGE

Work on the Canal Stopped by the Inundation.

Colon, Dec. 5.—Up to Monday night ten inches of water had fallen in Colon during 24 hours. The Chagres river has reached the highest point ever known, and is still rising fast. Communication and traffic by way of the Panama railroad are interrupted.

The high winds of Sunday tore the roof off the market, and lightning struck the middle pole of the wireless telegraph station, and in falling the pole damaged the power house.

There has been no telegraphic communication with Panama since Monday. The washouts on the railroad are most severe, between Maneti and Gorgona. The Chagres has risen 28 feet. The bridge at Matachin has been carried away and the town is five feet under water. Some of the machine shops of the canal constructors are flooded to a depth of two feet. The work on the canal has been suspended on account of the inundation.

Rejected Suitor Shoots Girl

Springfield, Mo., Dec. 5.—Garland Moore, aged 21, a mail carrier, shot and fatally wounded Miss Clara West, 27, at Bos D'Arc Tuesday night, after the shooting, and a chase was started in pursuit. Miss West was one of the wealthiest of Green county. She was the daughter of a cousin in Bos D'Arc, and the shooting occurred after Moore had refused her to marry him.

THE JUSTICE SHOP SYSTEM A BYGONE

Old Seats of Corruption in Chicago Replaced Today by New Municipal Courts.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Chicago, Ill., Dec. 5.—The justice shop system, which by lax methods and undoubted corruption in many instances stood for years as a monument to disgrace of the past, today the justice shops were succeeded by the new municipal courts, which, in contrast with the old system, as contemplated by the enabling act, rank with the circuit and superior courts of Cook county. The new courts were placed in operation by Chief Justice Harry Olson and twenty-seven associate justices, all Republicans.

NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON DRAINAGE CALLED

Oklahoma City, Okla., Dec. 5.—In response to a call issued by Governor Frantz a large number of delegates assembled in this city today to take part in a national drainage conference, the first of its kind.

The personnel of the gathering is such as to give weight to its deliberations and conclusions. Those in attendance include delegates appointed by the governors of many states, particularly the states of the Mississippi Valley and the west. Others present include a number of state engineers and representatives of the United States Department of the Interior and the Agricultural Department. During the three days it will be in session the conference will discuss those phases of the drainage question which are of general interest, the consideration of ways and means for the inauguration of a general movement for the reclamation of lands by the construction of drainage work, and start a campaign of education for the purpose of arousing public sentiment to the importance of adopting a definite line of policy in regard to the problem of drainage.

JUMPS FROM TRAIN; LOST

North Dakota Woman Sought by an Entire Town.

Liverwood, N. D., Dec. 5.—When the Soo train going west arrived near this station and while still going at the rate of about 20 miles an hour, Mrs. N. J. Wollin, who lives ten miles south, jumped through a vestibule window and when she struck the ground was seen to roll over several times, but picked herself up and ran into town.

She called at one of the residences, saying that some one was after her to kill her, but was turned away because it was thought she was drunk. She has not been seen since and it is believed she crawled into a hay stack and perished. The whole city was called out and every outbuilding and barn thoroughly searched within a radius of 20 miles.

Wireless Talk Over 1,200 Miles

San Diego, Cal., Dec. 5.—Messages were exchanged Monday evening by the government wireless station at Point Loma with the government station at Puget sound, 1,200 miles away. This is the longest distance any wireless station on this coast has ever been able to transmit messages.

SENATE GETS BUSY WITH THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Asks For Information As To Japanese Exclusion--President Wants Supreme Authority.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, D. C., Dec. 5.—Senator Lodge today introduced a bill designed to prevent the employment of child labor by prohibiting interstate commerce in any article in the production of which a child under 14 years had been employed. The prohibition extends to children under 16 who cannot read and write.

Is Postponed
After a debate today the senate postponed until tomorrow all consideration of the resolutions calling for information relative to the discharge of negro troops of the 25th infantry.

Senate Interested
A resolution was adopted calling on the secretary of commerce and labor to furnish the senate with copies of all official letters, telegrams, reports, etc., filed in the department in connection with the investigation of the matter of the Japanese attending the public schools in San Francisco.

Wants Authority
The President today sent a special message to congress, urging legislation and giving the executive authority upon his own initiative and responsibility to dismiss any officer whom he thinks unworthy to remain in the service. A bill permitting national banking associations to make loans in real estate as a security and limiting the amount of such loans, passed the house today by a vote of 111 to 51.

In the Senate
The morning business was heavy in the senate today. It was practically the first opportunity the senators have had to introduce petitions, memorials, bills, and resolutions, and many of such were presented.

'FATHER OF HOUSE' SIXTY-FIVE TODAY

Bingham Oldest Congressman in Point of Service and Fifth Pennsylvanian to Hold Honor.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Washington, D. C., Dec. 5.—Representative Bingham of Pennsylvania, the "father of the House" in point of service, was kept busy receiving the congratulations of his friends and colleagues today on the occasion of his sixty-fifth birthday. Mr. Bingham is finishing his thirteenth consecutive term in Congress. As the fatherhood of the House seems to be determined by consecutiveness, the title does not devolve on Speaker Cannon, whose service exceeds Mr. Bingham's in priority and length. But Mr. Cannon missed the fifty-second Congress, thus making a gap in his record of fifteen terms. It is a singular fact that Mr. Bingham is the fifth Representative from Pennsylvania to hold the title of "father of the House." All of them, including Mr. Bingham, came from congressional districts in the city of Philadelphia. The first in this remarkable line was "Pig Iron" Kelley, who served fifteen terms of two years each. Then came Samuel J. Randall with fourteen terms, Alfred D. Harmer with the same number of terms, and Charles O'Neill with fifteen terms.

Four Children Burn to Death

Westfield, N. J., Dec. 5.—Four children, two boys and two girls, ranging in age from two months to five years, were burned to death at their home near here Tuesday night. Mrs. W. F. Wezel and Mr. Oscar Felter, who lived together, went to work, leaving their little ones at home alone. During their absence their house caught fire.

Roosevelt Attends a Concert

Washington, Dec. 5.—President Roosevelt attended the Boston Symphony Orchestra concert at the National theater Tuesday. He was accompanied by Secretary and Mrs. Taft and Senator and Mrs. Lodge.

TRIED TO HANG HIM BECAUSE OF HIS PIN

Cowboys Claim Negro Put on Airing Because He Wore Pythian Emblem.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Topeka, Kas., Dec. 5.—Two Texas cowboys tried to hang John E. Lewis, a negro, on a westbound Santa Fe passenger train near Topeka today. Three times they placed a rope around Lewis' neck, but each time he got loose, and finally jumped from the train and escaped. Lewis wore a Knights of Pythias pin and the cowboys said they did not like to see a negro "putting on airs."

ARMY NEEDS TRANSPORTS

Gen. Barry's Annual Report Calls Attention to This Lack.

Washington, Dec. 5.—In his annual report, made public Tuesday, Brig. Gen. Thomas H. Barry, acting chief of staff, calls attention to the fact that the government is without water transportation facilities in cases of emergency in the movement of troops. He cites the case of the army of pacification in Cuba and says that the lack of such transportation facilities was severely felt. "Had there been a small fleet of transports in reserve on the Atlantic coast the movement could have been accomplished much sooner," he says.

Praise is given the army as a whole for its adaptability and resourcefulness when dealing with novel and unprecedented conditions. Gen. Barry gives as an illustration the work of the army during the San Francisco earthquake and fire.

More Slavery at Home

Generally speaking, the colonists treat the natives with kindness and consideration. Slavery and ill usage are unknown. You will see more poverty, slavery and sweating within a half mile radius of the houses of parliament in Westminster than you will find in the whole of South Africa—South Africa.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.
T. W. NUZUM, M. D.,
Surgeon and Physician
Office hours: 10 to 12, 2 to 4, and 7:30 to 8:30. Office 321 Hayes Block.
Residence 407 Court street. Tel.: New
No. 1033. Residence. Phone—New 923, white; Old 2512.

CORYDON G. DWIGHT, M. D.
207 Jackson Bldg.
Practice Limited to
EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT
Consultation from 9 to 12 and 2 to 5 and by appointment.
New Phone 890. Old Phone 2762

Dr. T. F. Kennedy
DENTIST.
CROWN AND BRIDGE WORK A SPECIALTY.
Tallman Bldg., Over Badger Drugstore.

E. F. & J. V. NORCROSS
ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW.
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.
701-4 Marquette Building.
Long Distance Phone, Central 4772.

EDITH V. BARTLETT, M. D.
SPECIALIST
Diseases of Women and Children and Nervous Diseases a Specialty
212 Jackson Block.
Office Phone No. 372. Res. 616 Red.

J. J. CUNNINGHAM,
LAWYER.
No. 215 Hayes Block.
Janesville : : : : Wisconsin

THE "RACKET"
Don't Forget to Remember
That You Can Buy
French Copper Wire Rat
Traps, 45c.
Terrier Rat Trap, 8c.
Mouse Traps, 3c and 5c.
Glass Lamps, complete, 20c to 60c.
Bracket Lamps, complete, 25c
and 65c.
Plain White Wash Bowl and Pitcher, 80c.
Decorated Toilet Sets, $2.50.
Covered Butter and Bean
Bowls, 15c, 20c and 25c.
Mixing Bowls, 12c, 15c, 25c, 30c
and 35c.
Napkins, 3c, 5c, 8c, 10c, 15c,
20c, 25c.
4-slice Vulcan Toaster, 50c.
Bird Cages, 70c and 75c.

"THE RACKET"
163 West Milwaukee St.

SKIDOO PROBLEM
A coin collector had an accumulation of pennies. He told his son he would make him a present of the entire lot if he would put them in boxes, the same number in each box.
There was an odd number of pennies so that if he put an equal number in each of two boxes there would be one penny left over in a like manner he figured on 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21 and 22 boxes, but in every case if he put an equal number in each box there would be one (only one) penny left over. The son gave it up and told his father he thought it impossible to perform the feat. His father replied: "SKIDOO—23 for you." The son then put the entire lot of pennies in 23 boxes, the same number in each box. How many pennies were there?
To make the problem plain: The entire number of pennies was a number, which if divided by any number from 2 to 22 inclusive there will be a remainder of one (only one) and if divided by 23 there will be no remainder.
Address all answers to PUZZLE EDITOR.
Copyright 1906 by C. E. Kely, Chicago.

500 new pennies will be given to the person who sends in the most skillfully worded correct solution to the problem. 23 pennies will be given to the five other contestants whose solutions are considered by the judges to be the next most ingenious. Skidoo pins will be given to the other contestants whose solutions are considered unusually cleverly worded out.
Send answers as often and as many of them as you please. Write on one side of the paper on ly in sending your answer and if sealed and mailed use 2c postage.

The Skidoo Problem Still Brings Many Answers.
Over 30,000,000 in Each Box.
Janesville, Wis., November 7, 1906.
Puzzle Editor Janesville Gazette, city.
Dear Sir: The answer to the Skidoo Problem is this:
The total number of coins must be one greater than some common multiple of all numbers from 2 to 22, both inclusive; and must also be exactly a multiple of 23.
The least common multiple of these numbers which also, when increased by 1, equals some multiple of 23, is 698,377,681.
Dividing this number by 23, we find that there will be 30,364,247 coins in each of the 23 boxes.
JEROME RUGER.

LARGE AMOUNT.
Janesville, Wis., Nov. 5, 1906.
Puzzle Editor of Gazette: This letter is almost an exact duplicate of the one I sent in Nov. 3, but as I omitted a clause from the explanation of that one, I re-write my answer.
My answer to the Skidoo Problem is: 1,124,000,727,777,607,680,001 pennies. The explanation follows: One of the conditions of the problem is that the answer must be such a number that when divided by any of the numbers from 2 to 22 inclusive, there will be one and only one remaining. By multiplying the numbers from 2 to 22 inclusive together, it will give a

COAST DEFENSE IS VERY WEAK
ROOSEVELT TOOK THE MATTER UP IN MESSAGE.
HE URGED STRENGTHENING
Explanation of Service and Its Value to Nation—Details of What Is Needed.
(By William Wolf Smith.)
Washington, D. C., Dec. 5.—One of the subjects of which President Roosevelt treated in his message to congress was the deplorable condition of our coast defenses. Deplorable, not so much through the lack of fortifications, guns or machinery, although much remains to be done on all three, but especially to cause the lack of men necessary to man the guns and machinery in order in time of peace, to say nothing of manipulating them should war break out. What the President did have to say on this subject was short but to the point and he took a firm stand in favor of legislation calculated to remedy existing conditions. He has already placed himself squarely on record, and only six months ago addressed a special letter to the senate in which he pointed out that the increasing importance and wealth of our ports offered more inducement to an enemy. "The fact that we now have a navy does not in any wise diminish the importance of coast defenses; on the contrary it emphasizes their value, and the necessity for their construction," he said recently. "It is an accepted naval maxim that a navy can be used to strategic advantage only when acting on the offensive, and it can be free to so operate only after our coast defense is reasonably secure and so recognized by the country."

The President takes the ground that the security and protection of our interests require the completion of our coast defenses, and that the plans of the National Coast Defense board should receive the generous support of congress.
In his forthcoming message the President will reaffirm his position, especially so far as pending legislation providing for the reorganization of the coast artillery is concerned. The senate committee on military affairs has favorably reported a bill to separate the field artillery from the coast artillery, on the ground that they are two distinct branches of the service. The bill provides for the gradual increase during five years of 390 officers and 5,043 men for the coast artillery and 588 for the field artillery. The great trouble of the coast artillery has been to secure and keep trained electricians, engineers and firemen. It will surprise many to know that most of the cost of fortifications is for electrical machinery, "fire control," and searchlights, the "fire control" being the system of telegraphic and telephonic communication between forts and batteries, and with observing stations. Millions of dollars have been spent, and additional millions will be spent to establish power plants and install costly electrical machinery, and yet the coast artillery is expected to take care of them with enlisted men at $13, $15, and $18 a month. For example: sixty engineers are absolutely necessary, and the bill provides for that number at $750 per annum each. The places of these engineers are now filled by privates and non-commissioned officers, the pay of the highest being $18 per month. As such engineers get from $75 to $100 per month in private life it is almost impossible to get them to re-enlist after they once qualify as engineers, and thus the costly and intricate machinery of our coast defenses is almost constantly in the hands of untrained men. In addition, the work of constantly breaking in new men is extremely trying to the officers, and discouraging to those who are attempting to bring the coast artillery to a high state of efficiency.

A private statement of the condition of the coast defenses of twenty-eight fortified ports shows that to man them with one shift of officers and men, that is to say, each man at his proper station, would require 40,675 men, and 10,674 officers. There are today available at the different forts 10,713 men and 337 officers, scarcely enough to keep the guns and machinery from rusting.
Commercial interests in general, and especially those concerned with shipping and terminals at our great ports will be interested in this matter. If they take the trouble to investigate the facts, Take New York, for instance, with Forts Totten, Schuyler, Slocom, Wadsworth, Hamilton and Hancock, equipped with big guns, torpedos, searchlights, etc., it would require 224 officers and 5,682 men to man these forts alone, without providing for any relief whatever. That is more than two thirds of all the officers and half of all the men now engaged in taking care of all the coast defenses of the entire United States.
Other cities present interesting statistics. There is San Francisco, the terminal of the Harriman and other great transcontinental lines, and from which the ships of the Pacific Mail and other trans-Pacific lines carry our goods to the orient; in many respects the key to Hawaii, Guam and the Philippines. To defend San Francisco are Forts Mifflin, Barry, Baker, Mason, Winifred Scott and McDowell. To man these would require 175 officers and 4,268 men. There are available 42 officers and 1,400 men. The coast defense plans call for the expenditure of $3,119,242 to complete the defenses of San Francisco, of which $459,955 is to be spent for guns, emplacements and carriages; $334,352 for a central power plant; $163,064 for a reserve power plant; $158,000 for searchlights; $19,600 for modernizing older emplacements; and $1,473,991 for "fire control." It will cost $1,473,991 to install a complete system of communication alone at San Francisco, and it is a significant fact that this fire-control installation will be the only one recommended to congress this year, because there are no men available to care for others if they should be installed. And, in passing, it may be remarked that for Forts Mason and McDowell at San Francisco there are no men available at all.
Portland is another place on the Pacific coast of importance. Forts Columbia, Stevens and Canby defend Columbia river. It would require 67 officers and 1,446 men to properly man these defenses. Ten officers and 240 men are available. The National board estimates that $1,041,382 is necessary to complete these defenses but there is no prospect at present of congress being ever asked to appropriate a dollar for this purpose, so long as ten officers and 240 men do the work of 67 officers and 1,446 men, and enlisted men at $13 to $18 a month will find positions as engineers, firemen, master gunners, electricians, observers, gun pointers, etc. Seattle, Tacoma and Olympia, Washington, are important cities on the Pacific coast. How are they provided with coast defenses? Puget Sound is defended by Forts Worden Casey and Ruger. These forts are manned by the magnificent equipment of 27 officers and 903 men, where 139 officers and 2,180 men are now required! Even at that there is only one officer to 32 men where the proportion should be one officer to twenty-four men.

The coast defense plans call for an elaborate system of defense for Puget Sound. An expenditure of $1,519,349 is estimated as necessary to complete it. Of this $2,412,000 is for new forts alone, including guns and carriages. The National Board on Coast Defense says that "these waters have become of the greatest strategic and commercial importance due to the completion in the extreme northwest of great railway systems, and the establishment of a navy yard containing the only docks on the Pacific coast with the capacity for a battleship. These considerations press for an increased and adequate defense at an early date. The entrance is four miles wide, and so deep that it can not be successfully mined. Fogs are very prevalent in Puget Sound, and a bold, enterprising naval commander might be willing to take the risk of running the entrance at times when the ships could not be seen from the batteries. In order to strengthen the artillery defense, to meet this condition, the board recommends a second line of gun defense extending from Foul Weather Bluff to Double Bluff, some seventeen miles from the outer entrance."
But under present conditions Puget Sound will get nothing. On good authority it may be stated that the senate committee on appropriations has taken the ground that until sufficient men have been provided to take care of the guns and machinery now in position it will not appropriate money to complete our coast defenses. The committee takes the ground that there is no use providing additional costly guns and machinery when the coast artillery can not take care of what we already have.

Mrs. Austin's Buckwheat flour gives you the real genuine old buckwheat flour. Ask for Mrs. Austin's Buckwheat flour.
LINK AND PIN.
Northwestern Road.
Engineer Coen and Fireman Yates are on the extra board.
Fireman Whitman Smith relieved Fireman George Berrell on runs 541 and 534 last night.
Engineer C. B. Smith is on the sick list.
Fireman J. B. Kauffman is laying off and Fireman A. L. Duller is relieving him.
Engineer Guy E. Cole is laying off switch engine number 147 days, and his place is being taken by D. R. Dunwiddie.
Engineer Wheeler is relieving Engineer Conighan on run 578.
J. W. Lewis has been added to the local list of firemen.
Engineer J. H. Shekey resumed work this morning.
Engineer Freeman is relieving Engineer Spear on runs 535 and 530.
Fireman Besseson is relieving Fireman Charles Schunk in the "Chicago and various" freight pool with Engineer Dodge.

ADVERTISED LETTERS
GENTLEMEN—Arthur Altenburg, Albert Bunkelman, Signor Bruno, E. Bert Bottom, Walter Burgess, Charles Bass, E. A. Brown, Philip Clark, W. H. Colgrave, Arthur Davis, Mr. Frisby, Alexander Gunn, S. B. Hill, Roy Miller, A. Matherson, Emerson Melior (C. M. G. Payne, C. W. Schward, R. L. Townsend, August Viersching, Frank Warnele, George Walters.
LADIES—Mrs. George Anderson, Mrs. Benkert, Elizabeth Burdick, Mrs. James A. Cunningham, Mrs. Melvin A. Crandell, Annie Diley, Miss Ada Fairchild, Miss Laura Farrar, Miss Clara Frelin, Miss Margaret Garriety, Mrs. Mary Herden, Miss Anna Kuidson, Mrs. Gertrude Langdon, Mrs. L. M. Meddagh, Mrs. Jerry Miller, Mrs. J. A. Miller, Miss Susie Mackin, Gertrude Nicholas.
FRAMS—J. H. Phillips & Co.
PACKAGES—Mrs. G. H. Kelsey, Mrs. E. K. Whillson.
C. L. VALENTINE, P. M.
Janesville, Wis., Dec. 5, 1906.

Stomach Sufferers Squander Millions
In Search of Relief.
The world is full of disordered stomachs and 90 per cent of the money spent upon physicians and drugs goes in an attempt to cure the stomach.
People are made to believe that in order to get health they must doctor their stomachs and use cathartics. So the doctor gets his fee for the stomach treatment and the druggist for the physic, until the savings of a life time are exhausted and yet no cure.
Let's be reasonable.
The sick stomach is in every case the result of over-eating, hurried mastication and improper choice of foods. The mucous lining all the way down the food tract loses its sensitiveness, and when food is forced down the muscles fail to respond. They do not churn the food as they should. The glands no longer give out gastric juice to dissolve the food and render it capable of assimilation. The man has become a dyspeptic.
There is one sure way and only one to bring positive relief. Put into the stomach of yours the very elements that it lacks to get that food into liquid form. It takes pepsin, diastase, golden seal and other ferments to accomplish this. The healthy stomach contains these elements. The dyspeptic stomach lacks part or all of them. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet is made up of just what the dyspeptic stomach lacks—nature's digestives.
Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are not a medicine, not a cathartic, not a tonic. They do not cure anybody of anything but Dyspepsia and Indigestion and such ailments as arise from poorly digested food.
While they digest the food the stomach recaptures. The mucous membrane is coming out of its stupor, the gastric juice is coming to the surface, the muscles are regaining their power. Every organ of the body takes on new life, the skin gains color, and the eyes are no longer tinged with yellow. You live.
Why doctor and why drug yourself? Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will take care of your food while Nature cures you.
Try a box at your druggists, 50 cents. Or, if you prefer a free trial package before buying, send your name and address to: F. A. Stuart Co., 68 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

AMERICAN WAREHOUSEMEN IN ANNUAL CONVENTION
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 5.—The sixteenth annual convention of the American Warehousemen's Association began in St. Louis today, with headquarters at the Hotel Jefferson. The opening session was devoted to the reports of officers and several of the committees. Fireproof construction, gold seal and other ferments to accomplish this. The healthy stomach contains these elements. The dyspeptic stomach lacks part or all of them. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet is made up of just what the dyspeptic stomach lacks—nature's digestives.
Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are not a medicine, not a cathartic, not a tonic. They do not cure anybody of anything but Dyspepsia and Indigestion and such ailments as arise from poorly digested food.
While they digest the food the stomach recaptures. The mucous membrane is coming out of its stupor, the gastric juice is coming to the surface, the muscles are regaining their power. Every organ of the body takes on new life, the skin gains color, and the eyes are no longer tinged with yellow. You live.
Why doctor and why drug yourself? Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will take care of your food while Nature cures you.
Try a box at your druggists, 50 cents. Or, if you prefer a free trial package before buying, send your name and address to: F. A. Stuart Co., 68 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

NEGRO PAYS PENALTY FOR KILLING BETR
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Knoxville, Tenn., Dec. 5.—The taking place in the city of a trial for the murder of a white woman by a negro, has given the city a through jeal-

"THE SQUAW MAN" A REMARKABLE PLAY
Was Witnessed by a Good-Sized and Enthusiastic Audience Last Night.
"The Squaw Man," a four-act comedy-drama by Edwin Milton Royle presented at the Myers theatre, Janesville, Tuesday evening, Dec. 4, 1906, under the management of Liebler & Co.
Cast of Characters:
Henry Wynnegate, Earl of Kerhill. Richard Chawner.
Diana, his wife. Edith Cartwright.
Lady Elizabeth Wynnegate, his mother. Virginia Buchanan.
Lady Mabel Wynnegate, his sister. Lucy Millike.
Capt. James Wynnegate, his cousin. afterword Jim Carson. Henry Jewett.
Rev. Chiswick, his secretary. W. F. Granger.
Bates. Hazzard Ellis.
Malcolm Petrie, the earl's solicitor. Fletcher Hawley.
Sir John Applegate, Diana's cousin. William Eville.
The Rt. Rev. The Bishop of Exeter. Herbert Fortier.
Sir Charles Majorbanks, Diana's father. H. J. Andrews.
Mrs. Chichester-Chichester, Jones, an American lady. Nina Tyne.
Big Bill, foreman. Shorty, Andy.
Grouch, Jim. Carson's cow-punchers. Charles Chappell, Horace Mitchell, Ralph Locke, J. B. Henry.
Baco White, interpreter. Logan Paul.
Tabyanna, peace chief of the Utes. J. M. Colville.
Nat-U-Ritch, his daughter. Minnie Victorson.
Little Hal, her son. Master Jack Forrest.
Cash Hawkins, rustler and bad man. John Harrington.
Nick, the barkeeper. Frank Kilday.
McSorley, engineer of the Overland Limited. E. W. Kemble.
Parker, Pullman conductor. H. E. Robson.
Pete. Logan Paul.
Parson. Ingils Kelcey.
Punk, a Chinaman. Jerome Seals.
Mrs. Hiram Doolittle, from Dover farm, Mass. Laura Foster.
Mr. Hiram Doolittle, her husband. Bud Hardy, sheriff of Coyote county. A. W. "Jack" Ellis.
Kid Clark. Charles Beeder.
Officers of the Leicestershire Yeomanry. Case Hawkins' cowboys and Sheriff Hardy's posse, etc.

Five curtain calls after the third act for the splendid players presenting this virile and soul-searching play. Many moments when queer, almost forgotten sensations at the eyes and throat were suddenly relieved by a flash of delicious comedy. A journey from the serene atmosphere of the English landscape to the harsh borderland of civilization, the American alkali plain. Stage Indians who talked and walked like real Indians, and stage cowboys who did not swagger far enough out of the picture to mar the illusion. Remarkably fine portrayal of the sentimental, idealistic "Jim Carson" by Henry Jewett, who never overplayed his part, even in the great scene where his little child and the Indian mother all unconscious stole in to interrupt and destroy his ecstatic day-dream of a return to his own in England. Blending of a series of faithful character studies in the work of Logan Paul as the grimly humorous Indian interpreter. Charles Chappell as "Big Bill," the forward-trust friend and gallant knight of the plains. John Harrington as "Cash Hawkins," rustler and bad man, and others.
The scenic effects surpassingly good—the arid dreariness of the desert being vividly suggested in the third and fourth acts by the skeleton of the old prairie schooner, the barren rocks in the background, and the strange, relentless glare of the light.
The foregoing impressions were doubtless shared by every member of the good-sized audience which witnessed this notable performance last evening—and it was a good-sized audience, for a change. There were big men in big parts and the play, itself, was human, logical, and convincing. The original cast with the exception of William Faversham, presented it, and the finished work of Faversham's successor, Henry Jewett, left nothing to be desired. J. M. Colville, who played the role of the peace chief of the Utes, talked in the Ute language—at least it was so announced—and the fact that the audience soon ceased to smile at the curious jargon testified eloquently to his art. Miss Minnie Victorson's work as "Nat-U-Ritch," his daughter, though largely pantomime, showed a high order of ability. The Indian's casual advice to Carson, so literally conveyed by the excellent interpreter, to "kill 'Nat-U-Ritch' if she failed to obey him," and "Big Bill's" sage comment on social distinctions in explaining the "Squaw Man's" position to his cousin "Diana"—Miss Edith Cartwright—were interesting contributions.
J. B. Cheney as the drawing "Grouch," the cowboy, Hazzard Ellis as "Bates," Jack Ellis as "Bud Hardy," the sheriff, Miss Cartwright as the womanly "Diana," Fletcher Hawley as "Petrie," and all of the other players took their parts exceedingly well. It was a great play presented by a great company.
Mrs. Austin's famous Buckwheat makes the finest buckwheat cakes. Ready in a moment.

RETAIL IMPLEMENT AND VEHICLE DEALERS MEET
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Grand Rapids, Mich., Dec. 5.—There was a good attendance of members of the Michigan Retail Implement and Vehicle Dealers at the opening of their fourth annual convention this afternoon. Mayor Ellis welcomed the visitors and President C. L. Glasgow of the association delivered his annual address. The convention will continue three days, during which time many questions of importance to the trade will be discussed.

HAMILTON, OHIO, SPORTS TO REVIVE FIGHT GAME
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Hamilton, O., Dec. 5.—An effort to revive the fighting game in this vicinity is to be made by a local club tonight. The club has arranged a prizefight card. The wind-up will bring together Ray Bronson and Mickey Ford, both of Indianapolis, in a ten-round contest. The two are regarded as evenly matched and are counted upon to put up an interesting go.

MISS CARLE HOSTESS AT BRILLIANT BALL
Perfect Appointments and Genial Welcome Made Event at Central Hall a Memorable One.
Two hundred Janesville people and visitors from several cities were entertained by Miss Josephine Carle at a brilliant ball given at Central hall last evening. The hostess, assisted by her father, Levi B. Carle, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman L. Carle, welcomed the guests to a ballroom elaborately decorated with palms and ferns, Turkish rugs, tapestries, and handsome furniture, and shortly after eight o'clock Knell & Hatch's orchestra, concealed behind a barrier of Southern smiles, sounded the opening waltz. From that time on until one o'clock this morning the hall presented an animated and inspiring picture, heightened in effect by the beautiful costumes worn and the happy expressions of all of the participants. Punch was served at a booth erected near the south entrance. There were cigars in the smoking room; and through the evening at little tables decorated with red lights and red carnations a delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Bowerman in the apartments on the second floor. The musical program was especially pleasing and a few square dances introduced by way of variety were greatly enjoyed. Some of the out-of-town visitors present were: George W. Tolds and Charles Winston of Chicago, Mrs. William Hall of Freeport, Mrs. G. D. Fellows of Racine, Miss Donald Seals of Birmingham, Alabama, and Miss Gertrude Fellows of Milwaukee.

STORM SASH
All kinds of mill work
The J. P. Cullen Co.
Planing Mill
117 N. Main Street

Shakespeare's Advice.
Shakespeare put into the mouth of Polonius the injunction, "Give every man thy ear, but few thy voice." If this advice is to be held to be keeping with the rest of Shakespeare's advice as to wisdom, it must be construed differently than it usually is. "In the multitude of counselors there is wisdom" is an old saying, but equally as old is the well known fact that one man who knows his business is worth more than 20 who don't.
"Mules and Dead Languages." "The agricultural schools are all right," said the old Georgia farmer, "and I'm in favor of 'em—if they just don't larn the lads to swear at the mules in Latin. Some of the college graduates have tried that, and some of 'em got kicked so high they never did come down no more. Plain Georgia dialect is best for the Georgia mule. He never kicks at that."—Atlanta Constitution.
A novel dressing for wounds in the form of plain window glass has been devised. An antiseptic preparation is smeared on a piece of glass, which is applied as a covering for the wound. The merit of this new method lies in the possibility of examining the wound without removing the dressing. It relieves pain, promotes healing, and is economical.

THE RIGHT GIFT FOR A MAN
People's Drug Co. Offer Suggestion That is Sure to Please.
Nothing is much more perplexing than the question of what to get a man for Christmas, yet People's Drug Co. have a suggestion to offer that is very simple and satisfactory.
"If a man is a smoker," say People's Drug Co., "nothing will please him more than a box of good cigars. Mind, we say good cigars; cigars made to be smoked by those who know what fine tobacco really is, not cigars done up in silver foil, with gold bands, that are made for Christmas gifts only.
"In the many brands we carry we do not know one that we can recommend with more confidence than Wadsworth Bros' Chicos. While not expensive, it is a cigar that is smoked by our best trade, lovers of a good smoke. We have already sold a great many boxes for Christmas gifts, and expect to sell many more, so those who want to get a gift for a man that will really please him, should be wise and buy their Chicos now."
Wadsworth Bros' Chicos are also for sale at King's Pharmacy.

Rockford, Beloit, & Janesville R. R. Co.
DAILY BULLETIN:
Cars leave 6:00 a. m., 1:15 a. m., and 15 minutes after the hour until 11:45 p. m.
Last car for Rockford, at 10:15 p. m.; for Beloit, 11:15 p. m.
Cars arrive 6:45 a. m. and 15 minutes of the hour to 11:45 p. m.
SUNDAY SCHEDULE
First car leaves, 7:15 a. m.
First car arrives, 7:15 a. m.
Baggage checked on one-way tickets.
Baggage cars leave 8:15 a. m., 12:15, 4:15 and 8:15 p. m.

SACHET POWDERS
Twelve kinds. New and Fresh.
Good ones, too.
SMITH'S PHARMACY.

FRANCIS C. GRANT
ATTORNEY AT LAW
Janesville, - - - Wis.
Lovejoy Block Telephone 224.

DR. FREDERICK C. LINDSTROM
OSTEOPATH
Suite 322-25 Hayes Block
Room C, Phone 129
Wisconsin Phone 2114. JANESVILLE, WIS.
Licensed by Wisconsin Board of Medical Examiners.

COAL AND WOOD
BEST COAL FOR KITCHEN STOVE
OUR WASHED EGG AT $5.50.
S. Soverhill, Pres.; S. B. Heddles, Secy. & Treas.; E. M. Calkins, V.-Pres.; B. B. Baker, Mgr.
PEOPLES' COAL CO.
Yards: Pleasant St., foot of Washington. Phones: New, 293; Old, 2061.
City office: Badger Drug Co.

In the District Court of the United States for the Western District of Wisconsin—in Bankruptcy.
In the matter of Charles F. Logemann, Bankrupt.
To the Creditors of Charles F. Logemann, of the City of Janesville, County of Rock, and District of Wisconsin, Bankrupt:
Notice is hereby given that on the 21st day of November, A. D. 1906, the said Charles F. Logemann was adjudged bankrupt and that the first meeting of his creditors will be held at the office of H. M. Lewis, attorney at law, in the city of Madison, county of Dane, Wisconsin, on the 7th day of December, A. D. 1906, at 2 o'clock afternoon at which time the said creditors may attend, prove their claims, appoint a trustee, examine the bankrupt, and transact such other business as may properly come before said meeting.
Dated December 4th, 1906.
H. M. LEWIS,
Attorney in Bankruptcy,
M. P. Richardson and J. J. Chisholm,
Attorneys for petitioning creditors.
Janesville, Wis.
weddec4id

Boerner's Fine Perfumes
"Roria" a distinct success.
"Deil-Buds" a delightful surprise.
McCUE & BUSS The Druggists

We have just received another shipment of PICTURE MOULDING
We will frame your picture and guarantee satisfaction both in workmanship and price.

SAVINGS STORE
7 S. Jackson St.

STORM SASH
All kinds of mill work
The J. P. Cullen Co.
Planing Mill
117 N. Main Street

NEED A LIGHT.
Galley—"I suppose you've heard of engagement to Miss Roxley?"
Andor—"Yes, and I don't mind telling her people are bitterly opposed to it."
They say you are not a match maker."
Galley—"Why not? She has money to burn."

SAVINGS STORE
7 S. Jackson St.

STORM SASH
All kinds of mill work
The J. P. Cullen Co.
Planing Mill
117 N. Main Street

NEED A LIGHT.
Galley—"I suppose you've heard of engagement to Miss Roxley?"
Andor—"Yes, and I don't mind telling her people are bitterly opposed to it."
They say you are not a match maker."
Galley—"Why not? She has money to burn."

WHEN WE HAVE A BROKEN BONE WE POSTPONE THE DISCUSSION OF WHETHER DOCTORS ARE A BLESSING OR A CURSE, AND SEND FOR ONE. WHEN THE OUTLOOK IS A LITTLE "SHAKY" AT THE STORE IT IS AN EQUALLY GOOD TIME TO STOP WONDERING WHETHER NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING PAYS, OR IS BETTER THAN OTHER KINDS—AND SEND FOR THE AD. MAN.

NAPOLEON SAID: "YOU CAN'T MAKE AN OMELET WITHOUT BREAKING SOME EGGS." IT IS EQUALLY IMPOSSIBLE TO ADVERTISE A STORE INTO SUCCESS WITHOUT SPENDING SOME MONEY—BUT OMELETS AND SUCCESSFUL STORES ARE BOTH WORTH MAKING.

WANT ADS.

WANTED.

WANTED TO Exchange—First class creamery for a small farm. Address Emerald Creamery, Stoughton, Wis.

WANTED—A girl for general housework Mrs. Dr. Dudley, 210 S. Main St.

WANTED—Boy to work in drugstore. J. E. Haines & Co.

WANTED—A good, general country blacksmith; a special opening for a good man at this trade. Address T. W. Moly, Jansen, Wis.

WANTED—A young girl to wait on table. Mrs. Butler, restaurant, 22 S. Main St.

WANTED—Girls to operate bottling machine. Good wages, steady employment. Lewis Knitting Co.

WANTED at Once—Job printers at Gazette Printing Department.

WANTED—Men to learn barber trade. Four weeks complete. Read and cook. Vices Saturdays. Shops furnished now. Great demand for graduates. Write for Catalogue. Motor Barber College, Chicago, Ill.

WANTED immediately—A housekeeper and dining room girl. Also girls for hotels and private houses. Mrs. E. McCarthy, 270 W. Milwaukee street.

WANTED—Second girl. Apply to Mrs. N. L. Clark, 60 St. Lawrence place.

WANTED—Woodworking of all kinds. M. E. Hilt, both phones.

WANTED—A position as stenographer by a young person who also possesses certain knowledge of bookkeeping. Address A. D. (in zetto).

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Furnished rooms for light housekeeping, dishes and cooking utensils included. Inquire at 161 Terrace St., new phone blue, 389.

FOR RENT—Three houses in good location, city water. Apply to P. H. Snyder, Carle Block.

FOR RENT—Five room house. Inquire at 303 S. Academy St.

FOR RENT—Seven-room house and barn on Orchard street. Second ward; in good repair. C. S. Jackson, trustee.

FOR RENT—Eight-room house and barn on Milton avenue; gas and city water; in good repair; walking distance. C. S. Jackson, trustee.

FOR RENT with board—Pleasant furnished rooms; furnace heat. 105 S. Main St.

FOR RENT—Nice seven-room room; furnace heat and gas. 305 S. Franklin St.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Four Duroc Jersey hogs, 7 Ad. direct, 5 Smith, 1a Prairie, Wis. Jansville, Route No. 3.

FOR SALE—Child's receding co-suit with ad. 100 red, 300 S. Main St.

FOR SALE—Majestic range, with reservoir, used only one season; in perfect condition; good as new. Price $35. Chas. Snyder, the plumber.

FOR SALE—New ten-room house; large lot and good barn; in third ward, 35 Oakland avenue. Inquire at 122 N. High St.

FOR RENT—Two pleasant, furnished rooms, suitable for one or two gentlemen. Reasonable rent to right party. 255 Center St.

FOR SALE—Thoroughbred male foal; for terrier; all white with head marked tan. Inquire at 401 S. Jackson St.

FOR SALE—cheap—A large wood heater. Inquire at 303 S. Academy St.

FOR SALE—Ten room house with barn on lot 150 S. Oak and avenue, 3rd ward. Inquire at 102 N. High St.

IF YOU bring Buyer and Seller together in honest trade, does good to both. We are here to look after your interest as well as ours. We buy, sell, rent and exchange. Farms or city property; any kind of business or merchandise. Make loans, write general insurance. A few of our specialties:

300 acres in Italy limits..... $150
100 acres six miles from city..... 5000
60 acres 2 1/2 miles from city..... 10000
150 acres 2 1/2 miles from city..... 15000
A modern house close in..... 3100
Two small houses, close in..... 1000
Call, write or phone

H. BURNS,
No. 2 Central Block, Jansville, Wis.
Rock Co. phone 240; Wis. phone 4783.

FOR SALE—An income property in Jansville, Wis. good for 10 per cent on the investment. W. J. Lits & Co.

MISCELLANEOUS

SWITCHES made and repaired; doll wigs and hair chignons made to order. Mrs. Sadler, 18 S. Jackson St., both phones.

PUBLIC SALE—Dec. 11, 1906, at one o'clock: 33 female and 13 male Short-Horns. Consign: Robertson & Russell, Herr Bros. & Reynolds, at Morrisville, Wis. Barclay Wilcox & Jones, auctioneers. G. E. Russell, Sale Mgr.

OST, Sunday, on Jackson street, north of 11th street church—a black silk bag containing two handkerchiefs. Return to 208 S. Jackson St. or to "E. A. T." Return to 208 S. Jackson St. to ward.

MONEY TO LOAN on real estate security. F. L. Clemons, 164 West Milwaukee St.

J. NELSON, carpenter and joiner. All kinds of carpenter work done in first class order. Juste main and stair building. Specialty. New phone black 676, 102 Glen St.

F. B. WILCOX, farm and live stock agent at the farm. Corner Milton, Wis. Phone 300-2

IF YOU are looking for good investments, buy a good house, lot or farm. I have them; also some choice timber lands. I have a large list of property to select from. Money to loan at low per cent on good security. For Rent: Several good houses well located. Also good modern houses. For sale: fine office buildings, elegant road estate, loan & fire ins., 21 West Milwaukee St., Theobald Block. Both phones.

WE DO COMMERCIAL PRINTING.

MANY MANUFACTURERS AND OTHERS who appreciate the advertising value to their business, of first class stationery, solicit their orders to our care. Let us point your better heads, bill heads, envelopes, cards, etc. Prices reasonable, correct work, prompt service. Gazette Printing Co. Printing Department.

LAW PRINTERS.

WE CAN GIVE LAWYERS THE PROMPTEST kind of service, and accurate proof reading, on briefs, causes, records, etc. Out-of-town work given prompt and careful attention. We solicit your business.—Gazette Printing Co. Printing Department.

WE WANT YOUR PRINTING.

WE MAKE A SPECIALTY OF PRINTING catalogues and booklets. Send us your specifications, and we will quote prices and submit samples. Out-of-town manufacturers will find it to their advantage to place their work with us.—Gazette Printing Co. Printing Department.

JAMES MILLS, M. D.

Specialist in the diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose & Throat.
Glasses Accurately Fitted.
Office—25 West Milwaukee St.
Both phones. JANSVILLE, WIS.

BENEDICT, MORSELL & CALDWELL

Successors to Benedict & Morse
ATTORNEYS AT LAW
AND SOLICITORS OF PATENTS
Free Press Bldg. Milwaukee, Wis.

Wise Woman.

Elia—Elia has given up playing bridge whist and has thrown her cards in the fire.

Stella—Burned her bridge behind her, so to speak.—Brooklyn Eagle.

PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS.

PAZO OINTMENT is guaranteed to cure any case of itching, blind, bleeding or protruding piles in 6 to 14 days or money refunded. 10c.

Always Remember—The Fall Nar

Laxative
Bromo Quinine Tablets

Cure a Cold in One Day
Cure Grip in Two Days

E. M. Moore on every box, 25c

X-RAY
Stove Polish

Making Baking a sure and pleasant experience. Easily applied, uniform, economical—costs twice as far as other solutions.

FREE SAMPLE Address Dept. 2, Lamont, Corlies & Co., Acqs., 25 Hudson St., N.Y.

Many Delays at Altar.

When a bridal party arrived recently at an English church it was found that the clergyman had forgotten the appointment and he had to be sent for. It was then discovered that the bridegroom had failed to bring the ring. When this was obtained the certificate of the publication of the banns was found to have been left behind. Eventually, however, everything was ready and the ceremony proceeded.

Woman Scholar Wins Honor.

Mrs. Agnes Lewis, of England, is said to be the only woman who has received the degree of D. D., which has been conferred upon her in recognition of her labors in deciphering some ancient manuscripts of the bible which were discovered in a monastery on Mount Sinai. She is regarded as the most famous woman bible scholar in the world.

Read the Want Ads.

James O. Davidson

Mr. Davidson was born at Cogi, Norway, February 13, 1854, and came to this country at 19 years of age. He is practically a self-educated man and struggled hard for many years to repair the disadvantages of his childhood and with admirable success. After landing he went at once to Wisconsin with the group of Norwegian immigrants with whom he crossed the Atlantic, and worked for several years on farms and even in a lighthouse. He finally established himself in a general store business at a little place called Soldiers Grove, in Crawford county, Wis. He was successful in business from the start and soon acquired a big influence in his own county and the state at large. He has already served one term as lieutenant governor of Wisconsin, member of the legislature and state treasurer.

SHORT SPECIALS.

The volcano Kilauea, in Hawaii, is again active.

The town of Wilkesville, Mass., was sold at auction.

The town hall in Yokohama, Japan, a memorial of Gen. Grant's visit to that city, was destroyed by fire.

Government departments and commercial bodies of Hawaii have organized to secure a pan-Pacific congress.

The British house of lords has disagreed on the education bill and the government may withdraw the measure.

Chief Justice Andrew P. Wiswell of the Maine supreme court died suddenly in a Boston hotel of heart disease.

Fire in the business district of Montreal caused a loss of $150,000. Zero weather handicapped the work of the firemen.

Lewis Emery, Jr., the unsuccessful Democratic Lincoln candidate for governor of Pennsylvania, spent $25,501.48 in his campaign.

Rev. J. G. Rawlins and Alf Moore, a negro, were hanged at Vidusta, Ga., for the murder of Willie and Carrie Carter in July, 1905.

A wealthy German woman has promised to provide an annuity for Wilhelm Voigt of Koepenick fame when he has completed his prison term.

King Alfonso has approved of a new ministry under the premiership of the Marquis de Armiño, in which Gen. Weyler resumes his old post of minister of war.

Prof. Henry Fairfield Osborn, a well-known paleontologist of New York city, was elected secretary of the Smithsonian institution, to succeed the late Prof. Samuel T. Langley.

Judge B. F. Webber, former judge of the district court of Brown and adjacent counties, Minnesota, committed suicide by hanging himself. He was 74 years of age, and had been in ill-health for some time.

Nobleman to Become American.

Canon City, Col. Dec. 5.—Count Hans von Hochberg, 27 years old, a member of one of the proudest and richest noble families of Germany, Tuesday filed his declaration of his intention to become a citizen of the United States. He emigrated to this country after marrying a clerk in a Berlin glove store against the wishes of his family. He is now engaged in mining in this state.

Away From Home.

"Who's that man who tried to avoid you and pretended not to notice you?" "That's one of the deacons of our church." "Does he owe you money?" "No, but I ran across him in Paris a couple of times."—Cleveland Leader

Fooling Worried.

You can work the life out of worry by digging in and working hard.

Authors Flattered Themselves.

Balzac, perhaps the greatest of novelists, was conceited and passionately ambitious; he quite realized that he himself was equal to the most distinguished author of his own or any age. Fume, in introducing his essay on "Miracles," asserts that he has discovered an argument which will be useful against superstition, "as long as the world endures."

Don'ts Regulate cure constipation without griping, nausea, nor any weakening effect. Ask your druggist for them. 25 cents per box.

For any pain, from top to toe, from any cause, apply Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Pain can't stay where it is used.

Perfumed Ink. Oh, Lilacs!

When the thoroughly equipped society girl answers the notes of her newest receipt she must use stationery of the palest heliotrope. Her seal must be of the same hue and the latest flat is that her ink must be scented with the same flower. Count Beni, husband of Anna Gould, is credited with introducing this novelty into the land of the free. He once shocked the proprietors of that famous hostelry, the Ponce de Leon, in St. Augustine, by sending for ink perfumed with violets. Common ink, with its phobian odor, Count Beni asserted, was impossible. So perfumed ink is going the rounds, and it is essential as sachet bags for the chiffonier or essence for the handkerchiefs. Hyacinth is a favorite scent for ink, for, being rather strong, it retains its odor much longer.

Needle in Child's Abdomen.

A dispatch from Harrisburg, says that after complaining for a week of pains in his abdomen, four-year-old Owen Wertz was taken to the Harrisburg hospital, where an operation revealed a large needle in the muscles of his abdomen. When removed the needle measured over three inches, and, though black, was not rusty. It is believed the child swallowed it several months ago.

Her Friends.

"Yes, the horse ran away with her." "Was she frightened?" "No. She was pleased rather than frightened. The bare fact that anything on earth would care to run away with her was such a novelty."—Household Post.

Dyspepsia is America's curse. Burdock Blood Bitters conquers dyspepsia every time. It drives out impurities, tones the stomach, restores perfect digestion, normal weight, and good health.

Itching, bleeding, protruding or blind piles yield to Doan's Ointment. Chronic cases soon relieved, finally cured. Druggists all sell it.

Doan's Regulets cure constipation without griping, nausea, nor any weakening effect. Ask your druggist for them. 25 cents per box.

For any pain, from top to toe, from any cause, apply Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Pain can't stay where it is used.

Authors Flattered Themselves.

Balzac, perhaps the greatest of novelists, was conceited and passionately ambitious; he quite realized that he himself was equal to the most distinguished author of his own or any age. Fume, in introducing his essay on "Miracles," asserts that he has discovered an argument which will be useful against superstition, "as long as the world endures."

Don'ts Regulate cure constipation without griping, nausea, nor any weakening effect. Ask your druggist for them. 25 cents per box.

For any pain, from top to toe, from any cause, apply Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Pain can't stay where it is used.

Perfumed Ink. Oh, Lilacs!

When the thoroughly equipped society girl answers the notes of her newest receipt she must use stationery of the palest heliotrope. Her seal must be of the same hue and the latest flat is that her ink must be scented with the same flower. Count Beni, husband of Anna Gould, is credited with introducing this novelty into the land of the free. He once shocked the proprietors of that famous hostelry, the Ponce de Leon, in St. Augustine, by sending for ink perfumed with violets. Common ink, with its phobian odor, Count Beni asserted, was impossible. So perfumed ink is going the rounds, and it is essential as sachet bags for the chiffonier or essence for the handkerchiefs. Hyacinth is a favorite scent for ink, for, being rather strong, it retains its odor much longer.

Needle in Child's Abdomen.

A dispatch from Harrisburg, says that after complaining for a week of pains in his abdomen, four-year-old Owen Wertz was taken to the Harrisburg hospital, where an operation revealed a large needle in the muscles of his abdomen. When removed the needle measured over three inches, and, though black, was not rusty. It is believed the child swallowed it several months ago.

Her Friends.

"Yes, the horse ran away with her." "Was she frightened?" "No. She was pleased rather than frightened. The bare fact that anything on earth would care to run away with her was such a novelty."—Household Post.

Indian Runner a World Beater.

Thomas Longboat, an Onondaga, From Ontario, Canada, Long Distance Star.

Another sensational long distance runner has been sent out by Hamilton, Ont., home of the winner of the last Marathon race at Athens and of the winner of the last twenty-five mile Marathon road race held in Chicago.

The new Ontario sensation is an Indian, and several leading experts style him "the greatest long distance runner in the world."

He is long and thin as a telegraph pole. He is long, and he has a long name—Longboat. His first name is Thomas.

Thomas Longboat is nineteen years old. He is a pure blooded Onondaga, and he lives on the Caledonia reservation, seven miles from Hamilton.

There is a twenty mile road race held at Hamilton each year called the Herald race. About the time of the last one there was a nineteen-year-old Indian boy out on the reservation. He was six feet tall. His skinny legs were so long jointed that he looked like a man on stilts. And he had a natural, loose jointed stride that carried him over the ground like a deer.

This was Longboat.

Another Indian runner, Davis, discovered Longboat and induced him to enter the great race.

Longboat didn't have any training, and he didn't wear an athletic costume or shoes with short spikes. He came into Hamilton a few days before the race and looked the road over. Somewhere he picked up an old striped bathing suit and a pair of light shoes. He was ready.

On the day of the race he lined up with the others. No one knew his name or anything about him. People smiled when they saw his bathing suit and his long, skinny legs. Longboat didn't smile. He isn't built that way.

The starting signal came. Longboat went out in front and galloped away down the road. The other runners grinned and waited for him to get tired, and drop out. After a few miles, had been reeled off they realized that something had happened. They tried to cut down Longboat's lead, but it was useless. All they ever saw, of that Indian until the race was over was his trail in the dust—tracks about ten feet apart, like those of a long legged man in a hurry. Longboat's time was 1 hour 4 minutes 25 seconds. A novice, he came within forty-two seconds of the record.

Hamilton naturally went wild over the new hero. Sherring, who retired after winning the Marathon at Athens, saw Longboat flash and generously exclaimed, "That fellow could beat me the best day I ever saw."

Next week was the great road race at Toronto. It was a fifteen mile race. There were sixty-five starters, all the best men in the country. Longboat was there. Hamilton had sent him. And again Longboat just galloped away—left all the other perspiring athletes struggling and panting behind him—and without turning a hair crossed the finish line in 1 hour 30 minutes. He averaged ten miles an hour for fifteen miles over a rough country road, and that's going some. The great old time Indian, Deerfoot, who astonished the whole world with his feats on road and track, never classed with this lanky Onondaga.

"This Indian," said Sherring, a few days ago, "is the greatest runner of the century. He could take the Pierce boys, Jerry and Frank, let them run relays against him, changing off at the end of each mile, and beat them over a Marathon course. He can run away from any distance man in America today, and he has only run two races in his life. I expect to see him break all the world's long distance records, and I wouldn't be surprised to see him take everything from a mile-up. Nobody knows what his speed limit is."

My heart and hand another claimed. His plea had come too late. It's ever thus with people without pluck and vim.

Take Rocky Mountain Tea, don't get left again.

—Smith Drug Co.

Indian Runner a World Beater.

Thomas Longboat, an Onondaga, From Ontario, Canada, Long Distance Star.

Another sensational long distance runner has been sent out by Hamilton, Ont., home of the winner of the last Marathon race at Athens and of the winner of the last twenty-five mile Marathon road race held in Chicago.

The new Ontario sensation is an Indian, and several leading experts style him "the greatest long distance runner in the world."

He is long and thin as a telegraph pole. He is long, and he has a long name—Longboat. His first name is Thomas.

Thomas Longboat is nineteen years old. He is a pure blooded Onondaga, and he lives on the Caledonia reservation, seven miles from Hamilton.

There is a twenty mile road race held at Hamilton each year called the Herald race. About the time of the last one there was a nineteen-year-old Indian boy out on the reservation. He was six feet tall. His skinny legs were so long jointed that he looked like a man on stilts. And he had a natural, loose jointed stride that carried him over the ground like a deer.

This was Longboat.

Another Indian runner, Davis, discovered Longboat and induced him to enter the great race.

Longboat didn't have any training, and he didn't wear an athletic costume or shoes with short spikes. He came into Hamilton a few days before the race and looked the road over. Somewhere he picked up an old striped bathing suit and a pair of light shoes. He was ready.

On the day of the race he lined up with the others. No one knew his name or anything about him. People smiled when they saw his bathing suit and his long, skinny legs. Longboat didn't smile. He isn't built that way.

The starting signal came. Longboat went out in front and galloped away down the road. The other runners grinned and waited for him to get tired, and drop out. After a few miles, had been reeled off they realized that something had happened. They tried to cut down Longboat's lead, but it was useless. All they ever saw, of that Indian until the race was over was his trail in the dust—tracks about ten feet apart, like those of a long legged man in a hurry. Longboat's time was 1 hour 4 minutes 25 seconds. A novice, he came within forty-two seconds of the record.

Hamilton naturally went wild over the new hero. Sherring, who retired after winning the Marathon at Athens, saw Longboat flash and generously exclaimed, "That fellow could beat me the best day I ever saw."

Next week was the great road race at Toronto. It was a fifteen mile race. There were sixty-five starters, all the best men in the country. Longboat was there. Hamilton had sent him. And again Longboat just galloped away—left all the other perspiring athletes struggling and panting behind him—and without turning a hair crossed the finish line in 1 hour 30 minutes. He averaged ten miles an hour for fifteen miles over a rough country road, and that's going some. The great old time Indian, Deerfoot, who astonished the whole world with his feats on road and track, never classed with this lanky Onondaga.

"This Indian," said Sherring, a few days ago, "is the greatest runner of the century. He could take the Pierce boys, Jerry and Frank, let them run relays against him, changing off at the end of each mile, and beat them over a Marathon course. He can run away from any distance man in America today, and he has only run two races in his life. I expect to see him break all the world's long distance records, and I wouldn't be surprised to see him take everything from a mile-up. Nobody knows what his speed limit is."

My heart and hand another claimed. His plea had come too late. It's ever thus with people without pluck and vim.

Take Rocky Mountain Tea, don't get left again.

—Smith Drug Co.

Indian Runner a World Beater.

Thomas Longboat, an Onondaga, From Ontario, Canada, Long Distance Star.

Another sensational long distance runner has been sent out by Hamilton, Ont., home of the winner of the last Marathon race at Athens and of the winner of the last twenty-five mile Marathon road race held in Chicago.

The new Ontario sensation is an Indian, and several leading experts style him "the greatest long distance runner in the world."

He is long and thin as a telegraph pole. He is long, and he has a long name—Longboat. His first name is Thomas.

Thomas Longboat is nineteen years old. He is a pure blooded Onondaga, and he lives on the Caledonia reservation, seven miles from Hamilton.

There is a twenty mile road race held at Hamilton each year called the Herald race. About the time of the last one there was a nineteen-year-old Indian boy out on the reservation. He was six feet tall. His skinny legs were so long jointed that he looked like a man on stilts. And he had a natural, loose jointed stride that carried him over the ground like a deer.

This was Longboat.

Another Indian runner, Davis, discovered Longboat and induced him to enter the great race.

Longboat didn't have any training, and he didn't wear an athletic costume or shoes with short spikes. He came into Hamilton a few days before the race and looked the road over. Somewhere he picked up an old striped bathing suit and a pair of light shoes. He was ready.

On the day of the race he lined up with the others. No one knew his name or anything about him. People smiled when they saw his bathing suit and his long, skinny legs. Longboat didn't smile. He isn't built that way.

The starting signal came. Longboat went out in front and galloped away down the road. The other runners grinned and waited for him to get tired, and drop out. After a few miles, had been reeled off they realized that something had happened. They tried to cut down Longboat's lead, but it was useless. All they ever saw, of that Indian until the race was over was his trail in the dust—tracks about ten feet apart, like those of a long legged man in a hurry. Longboat's time was 1 hour 4 minutes 25 seconds. A novice, he came within forty-two seconds of the record.

Hamilton naturally went wild over the new hero. Sherring, who retired after winning the Marathon at Athens, saw Longboat flash and generously exclaimed, "That fellow could beat me the best day I ever saw."

Next week was the great road race at Toronto. It was a fifteen mile race. There were sixty-five starters, all the best men in the country. Longboat was there. Hamilton had sent him. And again Longboat just galloped away—left all the other perspiring athletes struggling and panting behind him—and without turning a hair crossed the finish line in 1 hour 30 minutes. He averaged ten miles an hour for fifteen miles over a rough country road, and that's going some. The great old time Indian, Deerfoot, who astonished the whole world with his feats on road and track, never classed with this lanky Onondaga.

"This Indian," said Sherring, a few days ago, "is the greatest runner of the century. He could take the Pierce boys, Jerry and Frank, let them run relays against him, changing off at the end of each mile, and beat them over a Marathon course. He can run away from any distance man in America today, and he has only run two races in his life. I expect to see him break all the world's long distance records, and I wouldn't be surprised to see him take everything from a mile-up. Nobody knows what his speed limit is."

The Janesville Gazette

Business Office Open Saturday Evenings.

ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN, AS SECOND CLASS MAIL MATTER.

MEMBER OF ASSOCIATED PRESS

WISCONSIN WEATHER FORECAST

Rain or snow tonight; Thursday fair by night, decidedly colder in north.

Suppose that you should hear today that your chief rival in business had decided to double his usual advertising space in this newspaper hereafter. Would you consider it good news for you? And yet if "too much advertising" is bad for a merchant, why wouldn't it be good news for you?

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.
Daily Edition—By Carrier.
One Month $5.00
One Year, cash in advance $50.00
One Year, cash in advance $50.00
Six Months, cash in advance $25.00
Daily Edition—By Mail.
CASH IN ADVANCE.
One Year $40.00
Six Months $20.00
One Year—Rural Delivery in Rock County $30.00
Six Months—Rural Delivery in Rock County $15.00
WEEKLY EDITION—One Year $1.50
Long Distance Telephone, No. 77.
Editorial Rooms 77-2
Business Office 77-2
Job Room 77-4

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE
The President's message, submitted to congress yesterday, is characteristic of the man. While of unusual length it is noted for directness of statement, and sincerity of the author.

No attempt is made to turn out a finished paper with well rounded periods and studied rhetoric. The President was full of his topic and states forcibly what he has to say without exhausting the subject.

Some measures which he recommends will be considered radical. The industrial world, or rather that part of it which works by the clock, will applaud his endorsement of an eight-hour workday. While the men who stand behind the industries with brain and money, will be disappointed, as they have a right to be.

His urgent demand for an income and inheritance tax, will also be a popular gallery measure, and men who never owned a dollar long enough to acquire a title to it, will say, "That's right, make the rascals divvy up." Confiscation, of one kind or another, is popular just now.

In discussing the question of capital and labor he recognizes the importance of again denouncing the muck-raker, and says:

"To preach hatred of the rich man as such, to carry on a campaign of slander and invective against him, to seek to mislead and inflame to madness honest men whose lives are hard and who have not the kind of mental training which will permit them to appreciate the danger in the doctrines preached—all this is to commit a crime against the body politic and to be false to every worthy principle and tradition of American national life."

"Corruption is never so rife as in communities where the demagog and the agitator bear full sway, because in such communities all moral bands become loosened, and hysteria and sensationalism replace the spirit of sound judgment and fair dealing as between man and man."

It is evident that the President is not blind to existing conditions. The message deals with every interest except the tariff, and as a state paper is well worth reading by all intelligent citizens. A few short epigrams follow:

"Every Christian patriot in America needs to lift up his voice in loud and eternal protest against the mob spirit that is threatening the integrity of this republic."

"Combination of capital like combination of labor is a necessary element of our present industrial system."

"We hold that the government should not conduct the business of the nation, but that it should exercise such supervision as will insure its being conducted in the interest of the nation."

"When home ties are loosened; when men and women cease to regard a worthy family life, with all its duties fully performed, and all its responsibilities lived up to, as the life best worth living; then evil days for the commonwealth are at hand."

"No man, no woman, can shirk the primary duties of life, whether for love of ease and pleasure, or for any other cause, and retain his or her self-respect."

"The best Americanism is that which aims for stability and permanency of prosperous citizenship, rather than immediate returns on large masses of capital."

"The United States wishes nothing of Cuba except that it shall prosper morally and materially, and wishes nothing of the Cubans save that they shall be able to preserve order among themselves and therefore to preserve their independence."

"The nation owes no more imperative duty to itself and mankind than the duty of managing the affairs of all the islands under the American flag—the Philippines, Porto Rico, and Hawaii—so as to make it evident that it is in every way to their advantage that the flag should fly over them."

"We should do all in our power to hasten the day when there shall be peace among the nations—a peace based upon justice, and not upon cowardly submission to wrong."

CALIFORNIA AND THE JAPANESE
The state of California is being freely criticised for its school laws, which sustain the city of San Francisco in the ruling of its school board which barred Japanese students from the public schools.

The fact is generally recognized that the Golden Gate City is the port of entry for the yellow races of the Pacific, the same as New York is the gateway of the Atlantic, for all other classes of immigrants.

The Chinese have long been considered undesirable, and restriction laws are more or less rigidly enforced. This is not so much on account of the yellow, as because of the fact that the Chinaman has neither the desire nor intention of becoming an American citizen.

This is not true of the Jap, and our schools and colleges have been open to him for many years. He is an apt student, and represents a nation noted for intelligence and thrift, as well as for progress and advancement.

The President deals at length with the San Francisco school question, and gives the people of California to understand that the rights of the Japanese must be respected. He says in part:

"Through the Red Cross the Japanese people sent over $100,000 to the sufferers of San Francisco, and the gift was accepted with gratitude by our people. The courtesy of the Japanese, nationally and individually, has become proverbial. To no other country has there been such an increasing number of visitors from this land as to Japan. In return, Japanese have come here in great numbers."

"They are welcome, socially and intellectually, in all our colleges and institutions of higher learning, in all our professional and social bodies. The Japanese have won in a single generation the right to stand abreast of the foremost and most enlightened peoples of Europe and America; they have won on their own merits and by their own exertions the right to treatment on a basis of full and frank equality."

"The overwhelming mass of our people cherish a lively regard and respect for the people of Japan, and in almost every quarter of the Union the stranger from Japan is treated as he deserves; that is, he is treated as the stranger from any part of civilized Europe is and deserves to be treated."

"But here and there a most unworthy feeling has manifested itself toward the Japanese—the feeling that has been shown in shutting them out from the common schools in San Francisco, and in mutterings against them in one or two other places, because of their efficiency as workers."

"To shut them out from the public schools is a wicked absurdity, when there are no first-class colleges in the land, including the universities and colleges of California, which do not gladly welcome Japanese students and on which Japanese students do not reflect credit."

"We have as much to learn from Japan as Japan has to learn from us; and no nation is fit to teach unless it is also willing to learn. Throughout Japan Americans are well treated, and any failure on the part of Americans at home to treat the Japanese with a like courtesy and consideration is by just so much a confession of inferiority in our civilization."

After deploring the inefficiency of the law to protect aliens, he says:

"Even as the law now is something can be done by the federal government toward this end, and in the matter now before me affecting the Japanese, everything that it is in my power to do will be done, and all of the forces, military and civil, of the United States which I may lawfully employ will be so employed."

"There should, however, be no particle of doubt as to the power of the national government completely to perform and enforce its own obligations to other nations. The mob of a single city may at any time perform acts of lawless violence against some class of foreigners which would plunge us into war."

"That city by itself would be powerless to make defense against the foreign power thus assaulted, and it is independent of this government it would never venture to perform or permit the performance of the acts complained of."

"The entire power and the whole duty to protect the offending city or the offending community lies in the hands of the United States government. It is unthinkable that we should continue a policy under which a given locality may be allowed to commit a crime against a friendly nation, and the United States government limited, not to preventing the commission of the crime, but, in the last resort, to defending the people who have committed it against the consequences of their own wrongdoing."

Milwaukee will ask the next legislature for state aid to maintain a day school for the blind. It is a mistaken notion. The blind are entitled to all the help they can get in securing an education which will enable them to help themselves, and the state school is in better position to serve them than any private school can be. This is also true of the deaf.

Rock county beet growers will be benefited by the new rate of 40 cents recently established by the rate commission. The state produced last year about 30,000 tons of beets on which the freight bill was some $60,000. The reduced tariff is a cut of 20 per cent and will amount to a saving of about $12,000, of which Rock county will receive half.

A MATTER OF HEALTH

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

A Cream of Tartar Powder free from alum or phosphatic acid

HAS NO SUBSTITUTE

California objects to the President's views on the Japanese school question. The citizens of the Golden state will do well to remember that the chief executive represents the nation, rather than the individual state. The school laws of California should be modified, so as not to conflict with the recognized rights of aliens.

The question of the discharged negro soldiers will be taken up at once, and only investigated. The President desires the widest publicity, and is confident that his action will be endorsed.

The London press endorse the attitude of President Roosevelt on the Japanese school question. Popular American sentiment is also with him, and congress will do well to get in line.

WEATHER.

Temperature last 24 hours taken U. S. registered thermometer at Helm-street's drugstore: 7 a. m., 34; 3 p. m., 36; highest, 42; lowest, 24; wind, east; showers and drizzle.

Stamps of the French Congo.
The leopard from French Congo is honored with a place on every one of a series of six stamps issued in 1900. Each stamp of the series is in two colors and these colors vary, all of which goes to prove that if a leopard cannot change his spots the lithographer can do it for him.

Oats of African Origin.
Oats are said to have originated in northern Africa.

FORZLY BROS.

The old reliable candy house on the bridge. We offer you this year a larger stock and a better assortment of pure, high-class home-made candies than ever before. Low prices prevail throughout our entire stock, and our efforts are to give you the best goods at a very moderate price.

Bittersweets, 25c lb.
Home-made Taffy, 10c lb.; 3 lbs. for 25c.
Home-made Chocolate Drops, 15c lb.
Sweet Kraut, 15c lb.
Home-made Molasses Chips, 25c lb.
Finest Box goods, 30c lb.

Is Your HORSE Protected

From the Cold by a Blanket?

If not, buy one right away. We have a splendid showing of all kinds of Robes and Blankets.

TOM COSTIGAN
Corn Exchange

Rabbit's Motherly Devotion.
A trapper going his rounds at Leeds town, Cornwall, came upon a rabbit nursing her little ones, and lying on her side to do so, while she was evidently in excruciating pain. Her two forelegs were broken and bleeding, and securely held in a steel trap.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

Adhesive, harmless, invisible Satin skin complexion powder is best for you, because best made. 25c, 4 tints.

Gentlemen

An elegant and useful Christmas present for your wife, your sister, or your lady friend is a beautiful Perfume Atomizer. We have many new styles and shapes in our assortment.

25c to $6.00

Beautiful holiday Packages Of Fine Perfumes

We have over 100 different styles of the choicest odors of all the leading makes. It will pay you to see what we have. Ask to sample some of our fine odors in bulk.

Ideal $1.00 an oz.
Iris 75c an oz.
Queen Helen 50c an oz.

SMITH'S PHARMACY
The Retail Store.
Kodaks & Kodak Supplies.

REAL CUT GLASS!

Perfectly cut glass of supreme brilliancy. All sorts of handsome dishes and useful pieces in all the newest shapes, including bowls, compots, salad dishes, nappies, sugars and creamers etc. The most beautiful cut designs. Rich and elaborate patterns.

KOEBELIN'S Music and Jewelry House.

"The Place to Buy."

HOLME'S STORE

REDUCED PRICES ON WOOL SHAWLS

To make room for holiday goods we offer our extra fine grade heavy wool shawls, come in brown and grey, all this season's goods at the following reductions:

Regular price	$1.39	-	special price	$1.15
"	"	2.25	"	1.75
"	"	2.75	"	2.25
"	"	3.25	"	2.50

UNDERWEAR

Ladies' fleece lined jersey ribbed vests and pants, extra quality, all sizes 25c
Ladies' extra quality seal back vests, 45c.
Ladies' fleece lined combination suits, all sizes, 45c
Men's heavy fleeced underwear, 45c.
Men's extra quality buckskin wool underwear, $1.
Children's fleeced union suits, 50c.

Outing Night Gowns

For women, 50c, 75c $1, $1.25, full lengths, all sizes
For men, 50c, 75c, $1.00, excellent values, all sizes.

Cotton Blankets

2 cases 11-4 Blankets, good heavy weight and by sizes, 75c; 10 4 blankets, an extra value at 50c

Nobby Coats

No such stock in the state as we exhibit—for ladies and for misses. There is no coat want which we cannot satisfy—garments which are proper as to style, are priced here $5 and up. Splendid values at $7.50, $10 and $13.50.

For this week the Handkerchief Sale continues.

Archibald & Co.
DRY GOODS, CLOTHING, HATS

OFFER HER

some of the best Bon Bons and Chocolates, and she will ever after have a high opinion of your good judgment.

NO SUCH CANDIES

can be bought at any other store. Pure, fresh and delicious.

The following list shows our home-made candies at popular prices:
Butter Sweets, all flavors 20c lb.
Tingaling 25c lb.
Chocolate Chips 25c lb.
Chocolate Wafers 25c lb.
Chocolate Dip Caramels 25c lb.
Peanut Clusters 25c lb.
Cream Caramels 20c lb.
Love Candy 20c lb.
Vanilla Marshmallows 20c lb.
Chocolate Dip Nuts 20c lb.
Assorted Chocolates 20c lb.
Cocoanut Kisses 20c lb.
Maple Cream (walnut inside) 20c lb.
Butterscotch 20c lb.
Fudges (4 kinds) 20c lb.
Fresh Mixed Candy 15c lb.
Mixed Candy 10c lb.
Taffies (all kinds) 10c lb.
Fresh Salted Peanuts 15c lb.
Extra Strong Horehound 20c lb.
Broken Mixed Candy 10c lb.
A complete line of all candies and box goods.

Fancy Candy Boxes.

Leather and Souvenir Postals.
Ice Cream. Hot and Cold Soda.

Ice cream made to order. Hot and cold drinks. New line Xmas postals.

Janesville Candy Kitchen.

GEO. N. PHILLIPS, Prop.
157 W. Milwaukee Street.

PUTNAM'S

FOR THE DINING ROOM

BRIGHTEN up the Dining Room with a new

BUFFET TABLE

Or . . .

CHINA CLOSET

Christmas and its guest will soon be here and a well furnished dining room adds much to the charm of these holidays.

A GOOD TIME

Is worth the price ($2. Up)

The new patterns of

CLOCKS

Are worth as much

French, Fancy Gold and Mantle Clocks

Cuckoo, Kitchen and Alarm Clocks

O. H. PYPER,

The Jeweler

"No trouble to show goods.
No goods to show trouble."

UP-TO-DATE WORK

The up to date dentist is a tooth saver rather than a tooth puller. People are getting educated up to a knowledge that it is far more to their advantage to preserve their teeth.

Hence many a man is now fitted up with elegant bridge work fastened to his remaining teeth.

Who a few years ago surely would have been condemned to finish his days struggling with a false set of clumsy store teeth in his mouth.

Dr. Richards makes a specialty of beautiful gold and porcelain bridge work.

Work just like your own natural teeth.

Look better than your own ever did. Feel fine.

Grind like a set of mill stones.

Last a life time.

His prices are simply $5 a tooth.

No doubt you have paid $10 heretofore and not a bit better work in any respect.

Try Dr. Richards for your next dentistry.

DR. F. T. RICHARDS.
Office over Hall & Sayles' Jewelry Store, West Milwaukee street.

Cleaners & Dyers

Ladies Waists, fine Dresses and Spring Jackets Chemically Dry Cleaned.

Janesville Steam Dye House
Carl F. Brockhaus, Prop.
59 East Milwaukee St.

"THE MODEL" BARBER SHOP

Our facial massages clear up the complexion and leave the skin soft and velvety.

M. J. BRENNAN, Prop.

WEST SIDE THEATRE
ROLLER SKATING

Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday Nights and Every Afternoon.

NOTICE !

We will place on sale some of our delicious Home-Made Buttercups and Molasses Waffles, on Wednesday at 25c lb. Don't forget to try some of our delicious home-made bittersweets. Watch for our beautiful initial display of assorted fancy Christmas boxes in all shapes and sizes. They cannot be excelled in quality, purity and our reasonable prices. Everything in the line of Christmas Novelties. Exclusive agency for original Almonds and Cinnamon Chocolate and Bon Bons. Don't let them sell you something just as good, for they cannot be excelled in richness and purity.

Palace of Sweets.
HARRIS BROS. Proprietor

Established 1855
—THE—
First National Bank

Capital - $125,000
Surplus & Profits $110,000

DIRECTORS:
L. B. CARLE, H. RICHARDSON,
S. C. COOK, THOS. O. ROWE,
Geo. H. RUMMEL, A. P. LOVEJOY,
J. G. REISFORD.

With ample capital, a large and steadily growing surplus, and long experience in business we solicit the patronage of individuals, corporations and societies.

Three per cent interest paid in our SAVINGS DEPARTMENT.

J. G. Rexford, Pres., L. B. Carle, Vice Pres., W. O. Newhouse, Cashier

ORDER
PASTEURIZED MILK

and you are then taking no chances of contracting disease—

IT'S PURE.

JANESVILLE PURE MILK CO.
Gridley & Craft, Props.

Goodly Sum Raised: The annual fuel collection of St. Patrick's church has just been completed and the sum of $418 has been raised from some four hundred subscribers.

SUDDEN DEATH AT RIVERSIDE HOTEL

Frank Lulu, Aged Sixty Years, Passed Away When No One Was Near His Bedside.

Frank Lulu, a man about sixty years of age who has been employed as a hostler at the Riverside hotel, suddenly succumbed to a complication of diseases last evening. In the afternoon he complained that he was feeling worse than usual and went to bed and when his wife visited the room some hours later to administer medicine she was shocked to find him in what seemed to be a profound stupor. Dr. W. H. Judd was called, but found the man beyond all earthly help.

The funeral will be held from Mary Kimball's Mission Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Tessie Gibbons Hawley
A telegram received by Andrew Gibbons last evening brought the sad tidings of the death at Boise City, Idaho, yesterday of his sister, Mrs. Tessie Gibbons Hawley. Mrs. Hawley was wedded to St. Mary's church, this city, last July. Not long after reaching her new home in Idaho she contracted typhoid fever and subsequently was obliged to submit to an operation made necessary by complications resulting therefrom. Miss Mary Gibbons, a sister, reached her bedside yesterday morning. The deceased was held in the highest esteem in Janesville and the news of her untimely passing will bring sorrow to many hearts. Another brother and another sister, besides those mentioned, survive her. They are Joseph Gibbons and Mrs. William Moore of Chicago.

Margarette Crowley.
The remains of the late Margarette Crowley were tenderly laid at rest in Mount Olivet cemetery this morning the funeral having been held from the home of the deceased's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Erdman, 507 Pleasant street.

Mrs. Lucinda Terwilliger.
Last sad rites over the remains of the late Mrs. Lucinda Terwilliger were performed at the home northeast of Afton this afternoon at one o'clock. Rev. R. M. Vaughan officiating. The remains were laid at rest in the Afton cemetery.

William McNeil.
Word has been received by Mrs. Dennis R. Morrissey of the death in Chicago of her nephew, William McNeil. The remains will be brought to Janesville for burial.

ODD FELLOWS ELECT THEIR OFFICERS FOR COMING YEAR

J. W. Scott Chosen as Noble Grand of the Order Last Evening.
At the regular meeting of the Janesville City Lodge of the I. O. O. F. at West Side Odd Fellows' hall last evening the following officers for the coming year were elected:
J. W. Scott, Noble Grand.
A. M. Church, Vice Grand.
R. J. Halteman, Recording Sec.
G. H. Webster, Financial Sec.
A. P. Watson, treasurer.
Edward Smith, trustee for three years.

NEWS OF CITY IN BRIEF.

Recalls Invitations: Owing to the serious illness of a member of the family, Mrs. Frank Blodgett has been forced to recall her invitations for her luncheons of Thursday and Friday of this week.

Mother Passed Away: Paul J. Cridelich of 162 Prospect avenue has been called to Milwaukee by the death of his mother.

Play in Oshkosh: "The Squaw Man" theatrical company went to Oshkosh today and will play there this evening.

Ninety-third Birthday: Mrs. Anna Kueck is this afternoon celebrating the ninety-third anniversary of her birth at the residence of her son, C. H. Kueck. Some twenty-five ladies are assisting her in commemorating her natal day.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS.

Chicken pie supper at the Presbyterian church this evening from 5:00 until 7:30.

You are cordially invited to attend the mask ball at Assembly hall tonight. Kneff & Hatch's orchestra.

Don't miss hearing the Rev. I. Hicks, the great weather prophet, at the M. E. church, Dec. 7th and 8th. Royal League hold their annual meeting and election of officers this evening in G. A. R. hall.

Great reduction on wool shawls. Read Holmes ad. on page 4.

The social club of the Congregational church will hold its sale and supper Wednesday, December 12. The sale of dolls and fancy articles will be held during the afternoon, and a chicken pie supper served at 5:30 o'clock.

The United Spanish War Veterans' mask ball tonight at Assembly hall. Kneff & Hatch's orchestra.

Don't forget to see the exhibit at Holmes' street this evening and tomorrow.

A good time for all who attend the masquerade at Assembly hall tonight.

Our stock for the holiday season is more complete than heretofore. We show a large variety of dependable merchandise in each department that will give thorough satisfaction in every detail. T. P. Burns.

Chicken pie supper at the Presbyterian church this evening from 5:00 until 7:30.

The Ladies' Glee club of Beloit College will hold their annual concert Wednesday, Dec. 5th, in Wilson's Opera House, Beloit, Wis. Reserved seats may be procured by sending money to H. L. Curman, Beloit, Wis.

Waltz Me Around Again, Willie.

At the United Spanish War Veterans' masked ball tonight at Assembly hall.

The King's Daughters of the Baptist church will meet Thursday in the church parlors at 2 o'clock.

The Sprinkler Again: Several heads of the automatic sprinkler in the shops of the Janesville Machine company became overheated shortly before nine o'clock this morning and broke, registering a still alarm. The fire department responded.

LETTERS BEGIN TO ARRIVE FOR SANTA

His Mail Bag at the Gazette Office Will Soon Be Full of Missives for Perusal.

Already letters have begun to arrive for Old Santa. Little people who want to let their patron saint know their wishes are preparing to send their letters to him, care of the Gazette. Every little boy or girl who has wants for Christmas should be sure and send a list of them to St. Nick. Good, jovial, old soul, he lives for the children and once a year he comes round with his reindeer and sleigh to make their hearts glad. Be sure and write on one side of the paper, write plainly and send your letters to the Gazette, Santa Claus mail bag. They must all be in by December 17, so they can reach Santa in time for careful reading before he starts on his wonderful trip from Toyland.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Charles B. Withington has returned from a visit with relatives in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton have departed for San Francisco, Cal. P. J. Mouat went to Chicago this morning.

Mrs. Delia Dee of 51 Terrace street has returned from a visit in Fort Atkinson, whither she was called by the illness of her father.

Rollin Lewis left yesterday for Kansas City, Mo.

Miss Florence Palmer went to Chicago this morning.

T. E. Welch left yesterday for Louisville, Ky., where he has business.

Gay E. Cole is attending the fat stock show in Chicago.

Lee and Glen Fisher, sons of Sheriff Elect Ira U. Fisher of Evansville, entered the Janesville high school today as sophomores.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bell Dalton, who have been spending a week with their daughter, Mrs. W. L. White, on McKee boulevard, returned home this morning.

G. W. Dailey, superintendent of telegraph of the Chicago & North-Western railway, John L. Davis, superintendent of the Chicago & Eastern Illinois R. R., and J. C. Muir, superintendent of the Frisco system, were in Janesville yesterday on a visit to Valentine's School of Telegraphy. The Valentine school has furnished operators for the above railroads for many years, but for the past year or more has not been able to supply their demands, for lack of enough material.

Harry B. Morse, formerly with the Ziegler Clothing Co., is now associated with the Fidelity Trust Company bank of Tacoma, Washington.

Circle No. 10 of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. S. G. Lawson, 155 Dodge street, Thursday afternoon at 2:30.

The quarterly meeting of the Rock County Caledonia society will be held at their rooms Thursday, Dec. 6, at 2 o'clock p. m. Jas. W. Scott, Sec.

Fraternal Reserve association will hold their election of officers tomorrow evening. All members are requested to be present. Geo. Hiller, Pres.

Albert Schaller is in Chicago on business.

Mrs. A. A. Wetzel and her brother, J. B. Karn, are at Wabash, Ind., where they were called by the death of their father.

Cards have been received announcing the marriage of Mr. George Baird, formerly a resident of Janesville, to Miss Daisy Sinclair, on November 28th at Los Angeles, California.

George W. Folds, who was a guest at the home of George McKee yesterday, returned to Chicago this morning.

C. C. Smith of Clinton was in Janesville last evening.

C. Fredendall of Hanover transacted business here yesterday.

Charles Sprackling of Whitewater is in the city.

F. D. Pepper of Footville was in the city last night.

MISS HELEN DENISON WAS MARRIED IN CHICAGO TODAY

The Sister of Rev. Denison Was United in Marriage to Dr. Frank Wetzel of Chicago.

Miss Helen Denison, sister of Rev. R. C. Denison, was united in marriage at four o'clock this afternoon to Dr. Frank Wetzel at her home on Fifty-first street, Chicago. Her brother, Rev. R. C. Denison, performed the ceremony and her small nephew and niece, Master George and Miss Lucie, acted as her escort. Mr. and Mrs. Denison and children went to Chicago yesterday and the ceremony today was performed in the future home of the bride, which has been elaborately fitted up by the bridegroom. Immediately following the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served and Dr. and Mrs. Wetzel left for New Orleans and other southern points. Miss Denison has made many Janesville and has warm friends here who unite in extending their congratulations.

O. E. S. STUDY CLASS TO ENTERTAIN ATHENAE

History Class at the Congregational Church Parlors at Three O'clock Thursday Afternoon.

Members of the Athenae history class will be guests of the O. E. S. Study class at the Congregational church parlors at three o'clock Thursday afternoon. Rev. Robert C. Denison will give an illustrated lecture on "Reminiscences of Scotland."

Christmas sale of trimmed hats. All millinery at cost for balance of the season, including every trimmed hat in stock. Special sale Wednesday and Saturday for $1.50 and $2.50 of hats in all late styles. Headquarters for every style of children's headwear, baby bonnets, stockings, caps and all kinds of "Pam" caps. Try "Vermia Viva" for the complexion.

MRS. C. A. O'BRIEN, 159 W. Milwaukee St.

Birthday Surprise: Miss Emma Gehri, 67 Chatham street, was surprised by friends Monday afternoon, the occasion being her fifteenth birthday anniversary. A tempting luncheon was served and a delightful time enjoyed until a late hour.

VETERANS OF TWO WARS AT CAMPFIRE

Grand Army Will Also Entertain at a Social Next Friday Evening.

Members of W. H. Sargent Post No. 20, G. A. R., and members of Harry L. Gifford Post No. 23, Spanish War Veterans, joined in a roving union campfire at the Grand Army hall last evening. The program included reminiscences of prison life by A. M. Glenn and Eliza Carter and remarks by numerous members of both organizations. The Harry L. Gifford Camp now has 32 names on its roster and is in a flourishing condition. Last evening's entertainment was given on invitation of the Grand Army post. Announcement is made that all members of the Gifford posts are cordially invited to attend a social Friday evening, Dec. 7, at 7:30 o'clock, to be given by W. H. Sargent Post No. 20, G. A. R.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will continue their sale of Christmas articles and wearing apparel on Saturday at 1:00 p. m., on account of the bad weather. Many choice articles are still on hand.

RONEY'S BOYS

Given under the auspices of Civic Club of the First Baptist Church

BAPTIST CHURCH,
FRIDAY, DEC. 7TH, 1906

ADMISSION—Adults, 25c; children under twelve, 25c.

Tickets for sale at W. W. Nash's grocery.

Come and help the boys.

Picture
Framing.

If you want expert picture framing see us. We also carry a nice line of frame mouldings to select from at reasonable prices.

BLOEDEL & RICE,

The Main St. Painters.

Bring in your orders and avoid the rush.

BEAUTIFUL PICTURES for CHRISTMAS

We are now displaying a splendid new line of pictures ranging in price from 25c to $10 each, all framed and ready for hanging. The line includes

Pastels,
Water Colors,
Etchings,
Carbons and Photogravures

and no matter what you may wish, you can surely find it in this large stock.

Picture
Framing!

We are prepared to do all sorts of picture framing and can give you the best service in the city. Our line is all new and of the latest styles, colors and materials. It's a good time now to have your pictures framed before the great holiday rush begins.

CARL W. DIEHLS

Cor. W. Milwaukee and N. River Sts.

$31 STOLEN FROM MARKET; DELIVERY
BOY DISAPPEARED

Yahn Brothers' Place on West Milwaukee Street Entered by Unlocking of Rear Door.

When M. J. Yahn opened up the meat market owned by himself and his brother, J. P. Yahn, at 53 West Milwaukee street this morning he noticed that the place had been entered during the night and upon examination found that some thirty-one or two dollars had been taken. He is positive that he locked all the doors when the place was closed last evening and this morning the rear door was unlocked, the key had disappeared and an interior door which had been locked was ajar. Change to the amount of $5.25 left in the cash register, two wallets, each containing $10.10 in change for the use of the tow delivery boys, and something over $9 left in a bag on the desk was taken. A delivery boy who has been employed at the shop this fall, is suspected of the robbery. He has been boarding at J. P. Yahn's and last night after supper put on his better clothes and disappeared. He did not return during the night and was not at work this morning. The young man is an orphan but has relatives here, in Milwaukee and St. Paul.

Buy it in Janesville.

A large stock of Russian ras se s
Has just arrived

Mrs. Bill

Has received each week since her return from the west boxes of

Chinese and Japanese Goods

Her stock is now complete and is full of rare, beautiful, and many of them inexpensive, things suitable for Christmas, birthday and wedding gifts.

The public is cordially invited to visit her new rooms at "The Edgemoor," corner Pleasant street and Public avenue, one block north of Hotel Hilton, Beloit, Wisconsin.

Lovers of Pure
Delicious
Candies

should bear in mind that in the manufacture of our goods, we use only such sugars, fruits, flowers and chocolates as meet the approval of the Government Health Food Inspectors, and that our motto is "Absolute Cleanliness." We therefore guarantee the HIGHEST STANDARD OF EXCELLENCE.

N. Pappas Candy Palace

"The House of Quality,"
19 E. Milw. St., Jackson Bldg.

7 POINTERS

in the purchase of a

DIAMOND

- 1—Have it white.
- 2—Have it flawless.
- 3—Have the edges smooth.
- 4—Have the stone round.
- 5—Have it as large as you can afford.
- 6—Have it guaranteed by the firm you purchase it of.
- 7—Have it from the stock of

HALL & SAYLES

"Reliable Jewelers"

"General Tone"

10c Cigar.

Made in Janesville by

MALBON BROS.

69 W. Milwaukee St.

Smokers will appreciate the fine flavor of this new cigar. Try it. For sale at all cigar stands.

GOOD BANKING

While we are always prepared to assist legitimate commercial enterprise, we capitalize no man's business.

To aid temporarily a prosperous and growing enterprise is our duty and our profit, but to furnish ALL the capital required for a business undertaking is a very different matter and that we cannot and will not do. We solicit the business of those who believe a bank should be conducted on these lines.

ROCK COUNTY NATIONAL BANK

FLEEK'S

The newest and latest designs in STERLING SILVER Novelties and Toilet Pieces.

Souvenir
Spoons
Napkin Rings
Nail Files
Scissors
Tooth Brushes
Nail Buffers
Bells
Puff Boxes
Jewel Cases
Hair Receivers
Writing Sets and etc.

Prices the Lowest Engraving Free

At...
"Fleek's"
15 W. Milwaukee street

GOLDEN PALACE FLOUR

$1.15
HUBBARD SQUASH 10¢ EACH.
9 LBS. JERSEY SWEET POTATOES 25¢
4 CANS JANESVILLE CORN 25¢
LARGE FLORIDA ORANGES 25¢ DOZ.
5 LBS. MOCHA & JAVA COFFEE $1.00
WHITE CLOVER HONEY 20¢ LB.

E. R. WINSLOW

20 North Main St.

Roup is almost SURE DEATH
TO POULTRY.Conkey's Roup
Cure,

Sure Death to Roup.

Roup is the most fatal disease of the poultry yard. It is very contagious and spreads through the flock very rapidly. It is the result of a cold contracted in various ways. Symptoms: Sneezing followed by wheezy, difficult breathing, discharge from the nostrils and eyes, rattling in the throat, offensive odor, loss of vitality, etc.

Use Conkey's Roup Cure,

and save your poultry. Remember we make Poultry Foods and supplies a specialty. Our store is full of them. We have plenty of choice clover mixed hay for cows, clean timothy hay for horses, chopped red clover for poultry.

MOSHER'S BEST FLOUR $1.10.

Made from best northern spring wheat.

F. H. GREEN & SON

FAIR STORE.

SPECIAL SALE OF KID BODY DOLLS — DECORATED LAMPS AND JAPANESE CHINA.

14-in. Kid Body Dolls, jointed limbs, moving eyes, at 25c.
19-in. Kid Body Dolls, bisque heads, moving eyes, regular 75c doll, this week, for 50c.
19-in. Kid Body Dolls, bisque heads, jointed limbs, moving eyes, a $1.50 doll for $1.10.
Extra large size Kid Body Doll, 24 inches long, bisque head, for 98c.
Fancy Night Lamps, at 25c.
Fancy Decorated Parlor Lamps with No. 2 Rochester burner, assorted tints in reds, browns and greens, at $2.98, $3.45, $4.25, $5.25 and $6.95.
A large assortment of Japanese China in:
Cups and Saucers, 25c to 50c.
Bon Bon Dishes, 15c to 98c.
Salads, 25c to $1.45.
Sugar and Creams, 50c to $1.25.
Chocolate Pot, Cracker Jars, Cake Plates.

10-piece Decorated Dinner Set at $7.95, $9.50, $10.25, $12.00 and $14.00.
6-piece Toilet Set, in white and gold, tinted green, blue and red, and plain print set, at $2.25 and $2.50 per set.

A Bucket of ECONOMY COAL

is worth more than a bucket of ordinary coal, but it doesn't cost any more. Why don't you buy Economy coal? It is worth your while, as a trial will prove.

JANESVILLE COAL CO.

The Careful Coal Carters.
Phone 89.
Order Office: Riverside Laundry

All Kinds Of CLOTHING CLEANED, PRESSED AND REPAIRED.

Velvet Collars put on.
PANTORIUM

67 W. Mil. St. New phone 1047.

Old Times
Buckwheat Flour

IT'S PURE.
THE BLODGETT MILLING CO.
For sale by all Grocers.

Cedar Valley Egg

is a special preparation for kitchen stoves; Bright and Clean — makes quick fires, and sells for $5.50 per ton.

Sold exclusively by
F. A. TAYLOR CO.

AT CHRISTMAS TIME illuminate your home with gas. Make your house harmonize with the joy and gladness of the season. You will find it the best and most satisfactory light of all illuminants. Now that the holiday burners have come into general use, the full beauty and power of gaslight is shown better, cheaper and more brilliant than ever.

NEW GAS LIGHT CO.

Penwick Pure Rye Whiskey

Bottled in U. S. bonded warehouse with stamp of age, purity and proof on every bottle. Comes in quarts, pints and half pints. Makes a nice Xmas present.

WINES: Port, Sherry, Muscatel, Angelica, Tokay—80 cents per quart. Fine old RYE & BOURBON WHISKEY from $2 per gallon and up.

JAMES SHERIDAN,
10 S. River St.

Suburban News In Brief

BURR OAK. Dec. 3.—Tobacco has come in case and the farmers are taking advantage of the good stripping weather.

James Thompson delivered a fine load of hogs to Milton last week.

Several from here expect to attend the bazaar at Fulton Dec. 7, given by the Ladies' Aid society.

A number of this vicinity are having corn shredders the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Darling spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Anson Pope and family.

Seth Pope sold a valuable cow last Wednesday.

Mrs. Henry Bruce has returned home from her visit up north.

The Edgerton warehouses will open in two weeks. A few of the Burr Oak people will work in Edgerton this winter.

Miss Bridgie Boggs and Miss Constance Bingham were Burr Oak visitors last week.

Lou Hoague and sister Orris attended a surprise party in Porter last week.

SIX CORNERS. Dec. 4.—The quarantine has been lifted from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Gray and their little daughter has fully recovered from the scarlet fever.

Miss Nellie Manogue is spending the week in Chicago with relatives and friends.

The chicken-pie supper at J. W. Fetherston's last Wednesday evening was a success and all had a good time.

B. A. Carter and Dexter Gray delivered hogs to Avalon last week.

Several from here attended the party at Johnston Center last Wednesday evening.

The tobacco growers are busy stripping their tobacco and a good crop is in store for their hard labor.

Mr. and Mrs. David Gray have moved into their new house which they have recently erected.

ROCK RIVER. Dec. 4.—There were many gatherings here Thanksgiving day. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hull and son Fern took dinner at N. M. Rose's. Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Brightman and daughter Inez were entertained at Mr. and Mrs. George Buten's of Milton Junction. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Vincent and children spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Garthwait of Milton Junction. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vincent and family took dinner at Mr. and Mrs. Crocker's, at Milton, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Vincent and Mr. and Mrs. Algia Whitford attended a family reunion with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thomas of Albion. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Haskins entertained Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Haskins, Alie Haskins and Mrs. Eliza Haskins. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Balch entertained their children and families for dinner.

Mrs. Fred Rogers celebrated her birthday anniversary by entertaining a number of relatives Nov. 27. There were four generations present: her grandmother, Mrs. E. M. Crandall of Walworth; her mother, Mrs. W. P. Tuttle of Madison; her aunt, Mrs. Fred Carr, and son Halcyon of Sumner, and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. George Crandall, spent the day with her and her family and a pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

Miss Marie Paul returned to school after being ill several days.

Maudie Rose entertained several of her Sabbath school class at her home Friday.

Nellie Green and Charlotte Christenson are sick with the jaundice.

There will be a Christmas entertainment held here by the Sabbath school. The program and date will be given later.

Mr. and Mrs. Orlo Vincent and family visited at Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Vincent's, one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Davis attended church at Milton Junction last Sabbath.

Byron Vincent had the misfortune to have his horse break loose from where he was tied at Milton Junction the other night and after searching all night he was found at Dea Estes' residence at Milton. The horse, buggy and harness were uninjured.

Through the effort of the pastor Missionary Crofoot was secured to visit our church, and gave a splendid address on the Seventh-day Baptists' work at Shanghai, China.

Mrs. Kate Doran and Mrs. Nellie Jacobson visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry Green, Friday.

EMERALD GROVE. Dec. 4.—The Ladies' Auxiliary are making preparations for their annual fair which will

Mrs. Sarah J. Windrom

Mrs. Sarah J. Windrom, of Chicago, cousin of Zachary Taylor, twelfth president of the United States, and grandniece of Alexander Hamilton, who signed the Declaration of Independence, says:

"Vinol is a Godsend to old people. I am 76 years old, but have a hearty appetite, sleep soundly, and feel active and well today, thanks to Vinol. When I was young cod liver oil was dispensed in a greasy, unpalatable form, and it fairly gagged me to get it down. Vinol is entirely different, very palatable and nourishing to impoverished blood. It is the finest tonic and strength creator I ever used in my life."

A member of the Smith Drug Co. says: "This is because Vinol contains in a highly concentrated form all the medicinal and body-building elements of cod liver oil, taken directly from fresh cods' livers, with all the useless oil eliminated and tonic iron added."

"There are hundreds of old people in Janesville who need just such a strength maker and tissue builder as Vinol, and we can only ask every such person to try Vinol on our offer to return money if not benefited." Smith Drug Co.

NOTE.—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Janesville, it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town.

MORE MESSAGES DUE THIS MONTH

PRESIDENT'S VIEWS ON PORTO RICO AND PANAMA COMING.

ANNUAL MESSAGE HEARD

Read to Senate and House Which Then Adjourn—Smoot Case Comes Up Next Tuesday.

Washington, Dec. 5.—President Roosevelt's special message to congress on Porto Rico will be sent to congress on December 11. The president's views on the island and the legislation he favors are the direct outcome of his recent visit to Porto Rico.

The president's special message on Panama will be laid before congress on December 17. With only a bare reference to Panama in his regular message, Mr. Roosevelt reserved his observations and recommendations regarding isthmian affairs until he had completed his trip of inspection of the work in progress, which he will deal with in his special message.

Annual Message Read.

The reading of the president's annual message consumed two hours and twenty-five minutes in the house Tuesday and was followed closely by a very large number of members, while the crowded galleries gave close consideration.

Here and there the reading of the document was punctuated with applause, and hearty handclapping from Democrats as well as Republicans followed its conclusion. During the major portion of the time of the reading of the message, Mr. Lacey, of Iowa, acted as speaker pro tem, being the first of the defeated "stand-paters" to be recognized by Speaker Cannon.

Cousins Succeeds Hitt.

While the house waited upon the secretary to the president to appear with the message, which had been promised by the committee appointed by the speaker to wait upon the chief executive and inform him that the two houses of congress were organized and ready to proceed to business, Speaker Cannon appointed Robert G. Cousins, of Iowa, chairman of the committee on foreign affairs, to succeed the late Robert Hitt, of Illinois. He also appointed Mr. Frank O. Lowden to a place on the same committee to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Hitt.

After the customary resolutions relating to the printing of the message, the house at 2:35 adjourned until noon Wednesday.

President Roosevelt's message occupied the attention of the senate for two and one-half hours to the exclusion of nearly all other business. The exception to this was the introduction of a resolution on the Japanese situation by Senator Raynor, of Maryland, and the adoption of appropriate resolutions regarding those members of the house of representatives who have died since the last session. As a mark of further respect to their memory, adjournment was taken at 2:54 o'clock.

Smoot Case Next Tuesday.

Senator Burrows, of Michigan, gave notice Tuesday that next Tuesday he would call up for the consideration of the senate the question of the right of Senator Reed Smoot to a seat in that body.

Senator Clark, of Wyoming, chairman, called a special meeting of the senate judiciary committee for Wednesday morning to consider the nomination of Attorney General Wm. H. Moody for the supreme court bench, and other nominations to which no objections have been filed.

The caucus of the Democrats of the house Tuesday night elected Paul B. Porter, of Mississippi, to succeed the late Col. Isaac R. Hill as sergeant at arms of the caucus and "special employe of the house," and resolutions were passed deploring the latter's death and citing his services to the Democratic party.

Mr. Gaines, of Tennessee, introduced a bill Tuesday raising the salaries of members of congress to $7,500 annually, to become effective in the sixty-first congress, and reimbursing them for money actually spent in going to and from each session of congress.

Cold Wave Smites New York.

New York, Dec. 5.—New York had its first real touch of winter in the night when the mercury dropped from 40 degrees to 18 degrees in six hours. Freezing winds were responsible for this unusual drop of 22 degrees. Charles H. Weeks, a broker living in Brooklyn, was found unconscious and nearly frozen to death at Sixty-sixth street and Columbus avenue.

Summer Hotels Burned.

Conneaut Lake, Pa., Dec. 5.—Fire here Tuesday night destroyed three of the largest summer hotels and several frame buildings, and for a time threatened the entire village. Help was summoned from Meadville and the flames were got under control. The hotels destroyed are the Adlington, Brunswick and the Thatcher.

Sisters Commit Suicide.

Portland, Ore., Dec. 5.—Ina and Minnie Hill, sisters, were found asphyxiated in their rooms by Hilda Hill, another sister, when she returned home from work Tuesday. The dead girls left a note bidding Hilda farewell, but it does not state the reason for their act.

Cupid's Throne Is Cold.

Next to a cemetery at midnight about the loneliest sight is a hammock on the front porch after the first big frost. —Alchison Globe.

Your Grocer has it now

One woman says: When I prepared my first breakfast of

PILLSBURY'S BEST Cereal

VITOS, I did not notice the directions and consequently had enough food for the whole neighborhood. I am amazed at its great economy and delighted with its rich creamy flavor.

Made by the man who makes "The Flour"

Just the white heart of the wheat

FOR BREAKFAST—Stir slowly one half cup into two and one half cups of boiling water, salt to taste and boil 15 minutes. If too thick add boiling water. Serve hot with cream and sugar. When cold it makes a delicious luncheon dish, fried and served with syrup. Numerous dainty dinner desserts can be prepared with fruit and jelly.

GILLETTE IS FOUND GUILTY

HE IS CONVICTED OF MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE.

Slayer of His Sweetheart Hears Verdict Unmoved—Sentence Will Be Passed Thursday.

Herkimer, N. Y., Dec. 5.—The jury in the trial of Chester E. Gillette for the murder of his sweetheart, Grace Brown, at Big Moose lake on July 11 last, Tuesday night returned a verdict of guilty in the first degree.

Sentence will be pronounced on Thursday morning, to which time court adjourned after the jury had reported. Former Senator Mills, Gillette's counsel, before adjournment announced that when court reconvened at ten o'clock Thursday morning he would move to have the verdict set aside.

The jury, which had deliberated for five hours, sent word at 11 o'clock that a verdict had been reached. A moment later it filed into the courtroom and at 11:15 o'clock an officer who had been sent for Gillette, returned with the prisoner.

Pale and a trifle nervous, Gillette faced the jury, and when Marshal Hatch, the foreman, declared that a verdict of guilty in the first degree had been found, the youthful prisoner gave no sign of emotion. A few moments later, when his counsel had announced his purpose of making a formal motion that the verdict be set aside, and the judge was dismissing the jurors, Gillette bent over a near-by table and picking up a pencil wrote something upon a sheet of paper. He then folded the paper carefully and placed it in his pocket. Immediately afterwards he was taken from the courtroom back to his cell in the jail.

It was learned that the jury had some difficulty in reaching an agreement and six ballots were taken before the 12 men agreed. Up to that time the jury had stood 11 for conviction and one for acquittal.

MORE PITTSBURG SENSATION.

Arrests and Indictment in Tube City Railroad Scandal.

Pittsburg, Pa., Dec. 5.—With the arrest of J. H. Milholland, a civil engineer, on a charge of conspiracy to defraud, the issuance of warrants for the arrest of Joseph Flaherty and H. T. Bostaph on the same charge, the grand jury indictment against President C. S. Cameron, charging him with contempt and obstruction of justice and the postponement until December 17 of the conspiracy hearing of Common Councilman William A. Martin, the developments Tuesday in the alleged $70,000 bribery scandal between the officials of the Pittsburgh & Tube City railroad and the members of the Pittsburgh select and common councils were sensational.

Mr. Milholland is the engineer of the Pittsburgh & Tube City railroad. He was arrested about noon by a city detective and taken to the central station, where he remained in the office of the director of public safety for several hours until a friend furnished $2,000 bail for his release. The information against him alleges that he unlawfully combined, conspired and agreed to corruptly influence certain councilmen in the deliberation and vote for the granting of franchises to the Pittsburgh & Tube City railroad.

Very Low Rates to International Live Stock Exposition, Chicago.

Via the North-Western Line. Excursion tickets will be sold December 1 to 5, inclusive, with favorable return limits. Apply to agents Chicago & North-Western Ry.

GLITES RUN MINES BOUGHT, PRESUMABLY BY HANNA COMPANY.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 5.—Over $1,000,000 is involved in a coal deal which was closed here Tuesday. T. E. and A. W. Young disposed of their interests in the Glens Run Coal company of this city to purchasers represented by Michael Gallagher, of Mount Pleasant, O. The purchase of the Young interests, it is said, is another step toward the contemplated merger of all east Ohio coal property into about four companies. Gallagher, it is understood, represented the M. A. Hanna company of this city in the purchase.

The Glens Run Coal company owns five mines and about 7,000 acres of coal land near Rayland, O.

Negroes Start Foraker Boom.

Steubenville, O., Dec. 5.—At a mass meeting of negroes held in the courthouse here Tuesday night, a Foraker club was formed to boom the senior senator from Ohio for the presidency in 1908. An endless chain of letters was also started urging the negro voters all over the United States to organize at once for Foraker.

MILLION DOLLAR COAL DEAL.

Glens Run Mines Bought, Presumably by Hanna Company.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 5.—Over $1,000,000 is involved in a coal deal which was closed here Tuesday. T. E. and A. W. Young disposed of their interests in the Glens Run Coal company of this city to purchasers represented by Michael Gallagher, of Mount Pleasant, O. The purchase of the Young interests, it is said, is another step toward the contemplated merger of all east Ohio coal property into about four companies. Gallagher, it is understood, represented the M. A. Hanna company of this city in the purchase.

The Glens Run Coal company owns five mines and about 7,000 acres of coal land near Rayland, O.

Negroes Start Foraker Boom.

Steubenville, O., Dec. 5.—At a mass meeting of negroes held in the courthouse here Tuesday night, a Foraker club was formed to boom the senior senator from Ohio for the presidency in 1908. An endless chain of letters was also started urging the negro voters all over the United States to organize at once for Foraker.

Personal.

Mrs. A. Shaw of Haverhill, Mass., was cured of lung trouble, and her daughter, built up by Father John's medicine.

Mr. E. J. McQuade of 1 Broadway, N. Y. city, gained five pounds taking Father John's medicine.

THE JANESVILLE MARKETS.

Quotations on Grain and Produce for The Gazette.

Dec. 4, 1906.

Flour—1st Patent, $1.10 to $1.20.

Wheat—Chicago Cash, No. 1 and 2 Northern 72 to 74.

Barley—$1.50 to $1.60 per ton.

Oats—$1.25 to $1.35.

Timothy Seed—Retail at $1.75 to $2.00 a bu.

Hay—Pure corn and oats, $8.50 to $9.00 a ton.

Straw—$20 to $22 stacked per ton.

STANDARD MIDDINGS—$20.00 to $22 stacked.

OG. MEAL—$1.75 to $1.85 per cwt.

CORN MEAL—$1.50 to $1.60 per ton.

HAY—Per ton baled, $12.00 to $12.50.

SPRAY—Per ton baled, $8.50 to $9.

BUTTER—July, 30c.

CORNMEAL—25c.

POTATOES—35 to 50c.

Eggs—strictly fresh.

Not the Sunshine.

There was an old man who was charged with illicit distilling and was brought up before the court. The judge, who was a witty fellow, asked the prisoner what was his Christian name. The prisoner replied: "Joshua," and the judge answered: "Are you the man that made the sun shine?" and the prisoner replied: "No, sir, your honor, I'm the one that made the moonshine." —Army and Navy Life.

TOASTED CORN FLAKES

Won its Favor Through its Flavor 10c.

Your shoe money will go twice as far if you buy the strong, well-made and hard-to-wear-out for boys and girls. They are made of the best seasoned upper leather and tough solid soles and have fewer seams than other shoes. Mayer School shoes are shaped to prevent injury to growing children's feet. They

SCHOOL SHOES

WEAR LIKE IRON

Your dealer has them or will get them for you—take no other. The Mayer trade-mark is stamped on every sole.

We also make the "Honorable" shoes for men and "Western Lady" shoes for women.

F. Mayer Boot & Shoe Co.

Milwaukee, Wis.

LIGHT WHERE YOU WANT IT....

One of the many advantages of Electric Light is the ease with which it can be moved about by means of the

"TWO BALL" CORD ADJUSTER

It can be attached to any lamp socket and will permit the light to be raised or lowered to any height desired for reading, sewing or for general illumination.

JANESVILLE ELECTRIC COMPANY

BOTH PHONES ON THE BRIDGE

You will scarcely believe a soda cracker can be so perfect until you taste the one perfect Soda Cracker—

Uneeda Biscuit

So deliciously baked—so tender and flaky—so wonderfully preserved by a moisture proof package. It is the only real Soda Cracker.

5c

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

A GOOD STORY

Is told of a pig-headed, never-change-his-mind kind of a chap who honestly believed money expended for advertising was worse than playing the ponies. He soon went the way of all out of the fold, and the most annoying blue bottle that buzzed about his dead hopes was having to work for one of the clerks (who believed in advertising) that had worked for him. What he said about himself had best remain in the ink pot, undisturbed. Vain regret is wasted energy. NOW is the time to advertise and THE medium for the Janesville merchant is the Rigid Justice Among Animals. Bees, beavers, elephants, and crows banish or put to death such members of their communities as are lazy or wicked.

OFFICIAL NOTICE.

City Improvement Notice. Published by authority of the common council of the city of Janesville. Office of the City Clerk, Janesville, Wis., Nov. 28th, 1906.

Notice is hereby given that a contract has been let for improving Washington street from the northerly side of West Third street to the southerly side of Ravine street by grading, macadamizing and the laying of gutters and curbing, and that the expense of said improvement chargeable to the real estate has been determined as to each parcel of said real estate, and a statement of the same is on file with the city clerk.

It is proposed to issue bonds chargeable only to the real estate to pay the special assessments, and such bonds will be issued covering all of said assessments except in cases where the owners of the property file with the city clerk, within thirty days after the date hereof, a written notice that they elect to pay the special assessment, or a part thereof, on their property, describing the same, on presentation of the certificates.

A. E. BADGER,
City Clerk.

The Castle Comedy

By THOMPSON BUCHANAN

Copyright, 1904, by
HAKER
&
BROTHERS

CHAPTER I.

CASUALLY the young man raised his eyes from his harp to find that he had an audience. He sprang to his feet, looking all embarrassment at the two girls standing suddenly so close at hand.

Pictures of twin beauty, contrasts, they were, framed in the door-free stone archway of the half ruined but.

One was tall, perhaps, and slender, perhaps, with the hair of the Italian master—the hair that the red sun kisses, and then, unable to leave for the glory his kiss had awakened, hides in.

Her mouth was made for kissing, for smiling or for the shy saying of things that cut, and her hazel eyes would smile always unless a sad tale dowed them.

But the other—there could be no "perhaps" here. He looked and gaped, for in those deep eyes he seemed to find, all intermingled, the witchery, the appeal and the compelling power of midnight. Here was one who could jump the octave of emotions from laughter to rage and strike not a mood between. Her hair was black, and dimly, he was aware of her nose tilting, daintily upward, a bit supercilious above the lips that met so straight and yet so tender, while under the white skin he could see the blood run quick this way and that at the dominating black eyes' command. And they answered every thought.

Thus she stood, an imperious little empress of hearts, who needed no herald to announce her rank, for a new subject bowed before her.

"Come, come, Sir Foot. There are two of us. Which were you honoring?" She of the red gold hair it was mocked him.

He bowed and answered her gayly, but his looks sought the other, the smaller girl, who held him.

"Ah, mademoiselle, a poor dancing master can serve but the most beautiful."

"A dancing master!" Her tone was different now. "Why, we thought to have found a love sick poet swain when we heard you playing in our pet hut. Didn't we, May?"

"Why, Eff, a dancing master will be of far more use to us awkward country maids. We'll learn to courtesy right and perhaps the minuet, if—"

Her black eyes took him in with one swift glance.

"Master Dubarre," he stammered.

"Master Dubarre will teach us," she ended.

"The honor would overwhelm a poor Frenchman." This with another and a deeper bow.

"French?" cried the poet seker.

"Why, you speak English like an Englishman!"

"Ah, mademoiselle, I was reared in England, but"—the French shrug spoke volumes—"who would employ an English dancing master?"

The laughter of the three, intermingled, swept away all stiffness.

"Come, May," laughed the Titian haired one, "have you not a French cousin?"

"And by that token should be almost as good a frog eater as this man, I suppose?" cried May. "But you must not speak of him."

"Think, Eff, he is fighting Englishmen when he is half English himself."

"The elopement failed. The marquis was killed. The lady's family was very powerful, and my father fled to England." He went on to tell how the outlawed Frenchman had started a dancing class. He taught the young ladies in noble English families, and so had married an English waiting maid. Gaston Dubarre was their son.

The girl seemed to lose interest after she had found all this. She listened, though, when the Frenchman went on volubly to explain that he had followed his father's trade and had taken up where the older Dubarre left off.

Thoroughly disgusted, Miss Percy turned back into the hut. She turned just in time to intercept a look that flashed from Dubarre to Pierre and back again. The girl caught her breath and walked straight up to the

"That was a most unusual luncheon, mademoiselle. He did not lie."

The girl flushed angry at the broad compliment.

"When can you begin your duties, Master Dubarre?" she said stiffly.

"At once if only I could move my command to the castle."

"Comrade?"

"Yes, mademoiselle." He turned, pointing over to one corner, and for the first time the girls saw another man, a big fellow, lying on a bed of moss apparently asleep. "Poor Pierre! He plays the harp for me while I teach the steps. This morning coming down to a little for he stumbled. The heavy harp on his back buried him down so much the harder. His head struck a stone. See?"

The dancing master stepped across to the moss bed, and Miss Percy followed him.

"Oh, it is horrible! Will he live?" the girl exclaimed when she saw the long gash running across the man's forehead at the roots of his hair.

Dubarre shrugged his shoulders again. "It is nothing. We French know much. I bound up the wound. Then we came on to this hut. Pierre was tired from the blood letting. I from carrying the harp. We stopped, and I sang him to sleep."

"But he must be carried to the house. He'll be too weak to walk. Here, Eff!"

—Miss Percy turned impulsively to her friend—"Ride you to the castle. Sir John Wilmerding and Captain Thorncliffe will be there waiting us. Tell Sir John I say to bring a litter for this wounded man. I will wait here and tend him if he wakes. Men know nothing about such things."

The Frenchman regarded her for a few moments in silence. "You are very good, mademoiselle," he said at last.

Ethel Courtleigh was on her horse riding along the road across the view to her destination a mile away. And as she rode she smiled to herself to think how Sir John Wilmerding, the handsomest, the proudest man in the county, would receive that command to bring out a litter and help carry in an unnamed, unknown, low born assistant to a wandering, renegade French dancing master. But Sir John Wilmerding would obey. Miss Percy Courtleigh knew that, for it was not recorded when any one—and Sir John last of all—had ever thought of disobeying the imperious little "toast" of the county.

None in that part of England was more powerful than the Percys. Sir Henry of "the castle" was the family head, and his daughter, Miss May, had ruled too long a queen not to command absolute obedience. And so the smiling messenger delivered her command and two men, lavishly cursing, hurried about to obey the latest whimsical wish of their sovereign.

Out in the hut Pierre was slowly reviving. The girl had Dubarre bring her water in his hat from the brook that rushed noisily before the door, and using her own handkerchief, she washed daintily and bound up the ugly wound with tender care. The big Frenchman lying there watched her face throughout with mute, dog eyed affection.

Then May learned how old Armand Dubarre, in the generation before, had taught the ladies of France to dance; how he had been indiscreet in carrying letters for a certain noble marquis. Dubarre shook his head when he spoke of this.

"The elopement failed. The marquis was killed. The lady's family was very powerful, and my father fled to England." He went on to tell how the outlawed Frenchman had started a dancing class. He taught the young ladies in noble English families, and so had married an English waiting maid. Gaston Dubarre was their son.

The girl seemed to lose interest after she had found all this. She listened, though, when the Frenchman went on volubly to explain that he had followed his father's trade and had taken up where the older Dubarre left off.

Thoroughly disgusted, Miss Percy turned back into the hut. She turned just in time to intercept a look that flashed from Dubarre to Pierre and back again. The girl caught her breath and walked straight up to the

"That was a most unusual luncheon, mademoiselle. He did not lie."

The girl flushed angry at the broad compliment.

"When can you begin your duties, Master Dubarre?" she said stiffly.

"At once if only I could move my command to the castle."

"Comrade?"

"Yes, mademoiselle." He turned, pointing over to one corner, and for the first time the girls saw another man, a big fellow, lying on a bed of moss apparently asleep. "Poor Pierre! He plays the harp for me while I teach the steps. This morning coming down to a little for he stumbled. The heavy harp on his back buried him down so much the harder. His head struck a stone. See?"

The dancing master stepped across to the moss bed, and Miss Percy followed him.

"Oh, it is horrible! Will he live?" the girl exclaimed when she saw the long gash running across the man's forehead at the roots of his hair.

Dubarre shrugged his shoulders again. "It is nothing. We French know much. I bound up the wound. Then we came on to this hut. Pierre was tired from the blood letting. I from carrying the harp. We stopped, and I sang him to sleep."

"But he must be carried to the house. He'll be too weak to walk. Here, Eff!"

—Miss Percy turned impulsively to her friend—"Ride you to the castle. Sir John Wilmerding and Captain Thorncliffe will be there waiting us. Tell Sir John I say to bring a litter for this wounded man. I will wait here and tend him if he wakes. Men know nothing about such things."

The Frenchman regarded her for a few moments in silence. "You are very good, mademoiselle," he said at last.

Ethel Courtleigh was on her horse riding along the road across the view to her destination a mile away. And as she rode she smiled to herself to think how Sir John Wilmerding, the handsomest, the proudest man in the county, would receive that command to bring out a litter and help carry in an unnamed, unknown, low born assistant to a wandering, renegade French dancing master. But Sir John Wilmerding would obey. Miss Percy Courtleigh knew that, for it was not recorded when any one—and Sir John last of all—had ever thought of disobeying the imperious little "toast" of the county.

None in that part of England was more powerful than the Percys. Sir Henry of "the castle" was the family head, and his daughter, Miss May, had ruled too long a queen not to command absolute obedience. And so the smiling messenger delivered her command and two men, lavishly cursing, hurried about to obey the latest whimsical wish of their sovereign.

Out in the hut Pierre was slowly reviving. The girl had Dubarre bring her water in his hat from the brook that rushed noisily before the door, and using her own handkerchief, she washed daintily and bound up the ugly wound with tender care. The big Frenchman lying there watched her face throughout with mute, dog eyed affection.

Then May learned how old Armand Dubarre, in the generation before, had taught the ladies of France to dance; how he had been indiscreet in carrying letters for a certain noble marquis. Dubarre shook his head when he spoke of this.

"The elopement failed. The marquis was killed. The lady's family was very powerful, and my father fled to England." He went on to tell how the outlawed Frenchman had started a dancing class. He taught the young ladies in noble English families, and so had married an English waiting maid. Gaston Dubarre was their son.

The girl seemed to lose interest after she had found all this. She listened, though, when the Frenchman went on volubly to explain that he had followed his father's trade and had taken up where the older Dubarre left off.

Thoroughly disgusted, Miss Percy turned back into the hut. She turned just in time to intercept a look that flashed from Dubarre to Pierre and back again. The girl caught her breath and walked straight up to the

"That was a most unusual luncheon, mademoiselle. He did not lie."

The girl flushed angry at the broad compliment.

"When can you begin your duties, Master Dubarre?" she said stiffly.

"At once if only I could move my command to the castle."

"Comrade?"

"Yes, mademoiselle." He turned, pointing over to one corner, and for the first time the girls saw another man, a big fellow, lying on a bed of moss apparently asleep. "Poor Pierre! He plays the harp for me while I teach the steps. This morning coming down to a little for he stumbled. The heavy harp on his back buried him down so much the harder. His head struck a stone. See?"

The dancing master stepped across to the moss bed, and Miss Percy followed him.

"Oh, it is horrible! Will he live?" the girl exclaimed when she saw the long gash running across the man's forehead at the roots of his hair.

Dubarre shrugged his shoulders again. "It is nothing. We French know much. I bound up the wound. Then we came on to this hut. Pierre was tired from the blood letting. I from carrying the harp. We stopped, and I sang him to sleep."

"But he must be carried to the house. He'll be too weak to walk. Here, Eff!"

—Miss Percy turned impulsively to her friend—"Ride you to the castle. Sir John Wilmerding and Captain Thorncliffe will be there waiting us. Tell Sir John I say to bring a litter for this wounded man. I will wait here and tend him if he wakes. Men know nothing about such things."

The Frenchman regarded her for a few moments in silence. "You are very good, mademoiselle," he said at last.

Ethel Courtleigh was on her horse riding along the road across the view to her destination a mile away. And as she rode she smiled to herself to think how Sir John Wilmerding, the handsomest, the proudest man in the county, would receive that command to bring out a litter and help carry in an unnamed, unknown, low born assistant to a wandering, renegade French dancing master. But Sir John Wilmerding would obey. Miss Percy Courtleigh knew that, for it was not recorded when any one—and Sir John last of all—had ever thought of disobeying the imperious little "toast" of the county.

None in that part of England was more powerful than the Percys. Sir Henry of "the castle" was the family head, and his daughter, Miss May, had ruled too long a queen not to command absolute obedience. And so the smiling messenger delivered her command and two men, lavishly cursing, hurried about to obey the latest whimsical wish of their sovereign.

Out in the hut Pierre was slowly reviving. The girl had Dubarre bring her water in his hat from the brook that rushed noisily before the door, and using her own handkerchief, she washed daintily and bound up the ugly wound with tender care. The big Frenchman lying there watched her face throughout with mute, dog eyed affection.

Then May learned how old Armand Dubarre, in the generation before, had taught the ladies of France to dance; how he had been indiscreet in carrying letters for a certain noble marquis. Dubarre shook his head when he spoke of this.

"The elopement failed. The marquis was killed. The lady's family was very powerful, and my father fled to England." He went on to tell how the outlawed Frenchman had started a dancing class. He taught the young ladies in noble English families, and so had married an English waiting maid. Gaston Dubarre was their son.

The girl seemed to lose interest after she had found all this. She listened, though, when the Frenchman went on volubly to explain that he had followed his father's trade and had taken up where the older Dubarre left off.

Thoroughly disgusted, Miss Percy turned back into the hut. She turned just in time to intercept a look that flashed from Dubarre to Pierre and back again. The girl caught her breath and walked straight up to the

"That was a most unusual luncheon, mademoiselle. He did not lie."

The girl flushed angry at the broad compliment.

"When can you begin your duties, Master Dubarre?" she said stiffly.

"At once if only I could move my command to the castle."

"Comrade?"

"Yes, mademoiselle." He turned, pointing over to one corner, and for the first time the girls saw another man, a big fellow, lying on a bed of moss apparently asleep. "Poor Pierre! He plays the harp for me while I teach the steps. This morning coming down to a little for he stumbled. The heavy harp on his back buried him down so much the harder. His head struck a stone. See?"

The dancing master stepped across to the moss bed, and Miss Percy followed him.

"Oh, it is horrible! Will he live?" the girl exclaimed when she saw the long gash running across the man's forehead at the roots of his hair.

Dubarre shrugged his shoulders again. "It is nothing. We French know much. I bound up the wound. Then we came on to this hut. Pierre was tired from the blood letting. I from carrying the harp. We stopped, and I sang him to sleep."

"But he must be carried to the house. He'll be too weak to walk. Here, Eff!"

—Miss Percy turned impulsively to her friend—"Ride you to the castle. Sir John Wilmerding and Captain Thorncliffe will be there waiting us. Tell Sir John I say to bring a litter for this wounded man. I will wait here and tend him if he wakes. Men know nothing about such things."

The Frenchman regarded her for a few moments in silence. "You are very good, mademoiselle," he said at last.

Ethel Courtleigh was on her horse riding along the road across the view to her destination a mile away. And as she rode she smiled to herself to think how Sir John Wilmerding, the handsomest, the proudest man in the county, would receive that command to bring out a litter and help carry in an unnamed, unknown, low born assistant to a wandering, renegade French dancing master. But Sir John Wilmerding would obey. Miss Percy Courtleigh knew that, for it was not recorded when any one—and Sir John last of all—had ever thought of disobeying the imperious little "toast" of the county.

None in that part of England was more powerful than the Percys. Sir Henry of "the castle" was the family head, and his daughter, Miss May, had ruled too long a queen not to command absolute obedience. And so the smiling messenger delivered her command and two men, lavishly cursing, hurried about to obey the latest whimsical wish of their sovereign.

Out in the hut Pierre was slowly reviving. The girl had Dubarre bring her water in his hat from the brook that rushed noisily before the door, and using her own handkerchief, she washed daintily and bound up the ugly wound with tender care. The big Frenchman lying there watched her face throughout with mute, dog eyed affection.

Then May learned how old Armand Dubarre, in the generation before, had taught the ladies of France to dance; how he had been indiscreet in carrying letters for a certain noble marquis. Dubarre shook his head when he spoke of this.

"The elopement failed. The marquis was killed. The lady's family was very powerful, and my father fled to England." He went on to tell how the outlawed Frenchman had started a dancing class. He taught the young ladies in noble English families, and so had married an English waiting maid. Gaston Dubarre was their son.

The girl seemed to lose interest after she had found all this. She listened, though, when the Frenchman went on volubly to explain that he had followed his father's trade and had taken up where the older Dubarre left off.

Thoroughly disgusted, Miss Percy turned back into the hut. She turned just in time to intercept a look that flashed from Dubarre to Pierre and back again. The girl caught her breath and walked straight up to the

"That was a most unusual luncheon, mademoiselle. He did not lie."

The girl flushed angry at the broad compliment.

"When can you begin your duties, Master Dubarre?" she said stiffly.

"At once if only I could move my command to the castle."

"Comrade?"

"Yes, mademoiselle." He turned, pointing over to one corner, and for the first time the girls saw another man, a big fellow, lying on a bed of moss apparently asleep. "Poor Pierre! He plays the harp for me while I teach the steps. This morning coming down to a little for he stumbled. The heavy harp on his back buried him down so much the harder. His head struck a stone. See?"

The dancing master stepped across to the moss bed, and Miss Percy followed him.

"Oh, it is horrible! Will he live?" the girl exclaimed when she saw the long gash running across the man's forehead at the roots of his hair.

Dubarre shrugged his shoulders again. "It is nothing. We French know much. I bound up the wound. Then we came on to this hut. Pierre was tired from the blood letting. I from carrying the harp. We stopped, and I sang him to sleep."

"But he must be carried to the house. He'll be too weak to walk. Here, Eff!"

—Miss Percy turned impulsively to her friend—"Ride you to the castle. Sir John Wilmerding and Captain Thorncliffe will be there waiting us. Tell Sir John I say to bring a litter for this wounded man. I will wait here and tend him if he wakes. Men know nothing about such things."

The Frenchman regarded her for a few moments in silence. "You are very good, mademoiselle," he said at last.

Ethel Courtleigh was on her horse riding along the road across the view to her destination a mile away. And as she rode she smiled to herself to think how Sir John Wilmerding, the handsomest, the proudest man in the county, would receive that command to bring out a litter and help carry in an unnamed, unknown, low born assistant to a wandering, renegade French dancing master. But Sir John Wilmerding would obey. Miss Percy Courtleigh knew that, for it was not recorded when any one—and Sir John last of all—had ever thought of disobeying the imperious little "toast" of the county.

None in that part of England was more powerful than the Percys. Sir Henry of "the castle" was the family head, and his daughter, Miss May, had ruled too long a queen not to command absolute obedience. And so the smiling messenger delivered her command and two men, lavishly cursing, hurried about to obey the latest whimsical wish of their sovereign.

Out in the hut Pierre was slowly reviving. The girl had Dubarre bring her water in his hat from the brook that rushed noisily before the door, and using her own handkerchief, she washed daintily and bound up the ugly wound with tender care. The big Frenchman lying there watched her face throughout with mute, dog eyed affection.

Then May learned how old Armand Dubarre, in the generation before, had taught the ladies of France to dance; how he had been indiscreet in carrying letters for a certain noble marquis. Dubarre shook his head when he spoke of this.

"The elopement failed. The marquis was killed. The lady's family was very powerful, and my father fled to England." He went on to tell how the outlawed Frenchman had started a dancing class. He taught the young ladies in noble English families, and so had married an English waiting maid. Gaston Dubarre was their son.

The girl seemed to lose interest after she had found all this. She listened, though, when the Frenchman went on volubly to explain that he had followed his father's trade and had taken up where the older Dubarre left off.

Thoroughly disgusted, Miss Percy turned back into the hut. She turned just in time to intercept a look that flashed from Dubarre to Pierre and back again. The girl caught her breath and walked straight up to the

"That was a most unusual luncheon, mademoiselle. He did not lie."

The girl flushed angry at the broad compliment.

"When can you begin your duties, Master Dubarre?" she said stiffly.

"At once if only I could move my command to the castle."

"Comrade?"

"Yes, mademoiselle." He turned, pointing over to one corner, and for the first time the girls saw another man, a big fellow, lying on a bed of moss apparently asleep. "Poor Pierre! He plays the harp for me while I teach the steps. This morning coming down to a little for he stumbled. The heavy harp on his back buried him down so much the harder. His head struck a stone. See?"

The dancing master stepped across to the moss bed, and Miss Percy followed him.

"Oh, it is horrible! Will he live?" the girl exclaimed when she saw the long gash running across the man's forehead at the roots of his hair.

Dubarre shrugged his shoulders again. "It is nothing. We French know much. I bound up the wound. Then we came on to this hut. Pierre was tired from the blood letting. I from carrying the harp. We stopped, and I sang him to sleep."

"But he must be carried to the house. He'll be too weak to walk. Here, Eff!"

—Miss Percy turned impulsively to her friend—"Ride you to the castle. Sir John Wilmerding and Captain Thorncliffe will be there waiting us. Tell Sir John I say to bring a litter for this wounded man. I will wait here and tend him if he wakes. Men know nothing about such things."

The Frenchman regarded her for a few moments in silence. "You are very good, mademoiselle," he said at last.

Ethel Courtleigh was on her horse riding along the road across the view to her destination a mile away. And as she rode she smiled to herself to think how Sir John Wilmerding, the handsomest, the proudest man in the county, would receive that command to bring out a litter and help carry in an unnamed, unknown, low born assistant to a wandering, renegade French dancing master. But Sir John Wilmerding would obey. Miss Percy Courtleigh knew that, for it was not recorded when any one—and Sir John last of all—had ever thought of disobeying the imperious little "toast" of the county.

None in that part of England was more powerful than the Percys. Sir Henry of "the castle" was the family head, and his daughter, Miss May, had ruled too long a queen not to command absolute obedience. And so the smiling messenger delivered her command and two men, lavishly cursing, hurried about to obey the latest whimsical wish of their sovereign.

Out in the hut Pierre was slowly reviving. The girl had Dubarre bring her water in his hat from the brook that rushed noisily before the door, and using her own handkerchief, she washed daintily and bound up the ugly wound with tender care. The big Frenchman lying there watched her face throughout with mute, dog eyed affection.

Then May learned how old Armand Dubarre, in the generation before, had taught the ladies of France to dance; how he had been indiscreet in carrying letters for a certain noble marquis. Dubarre shook his head when he spoke of this.

"The elopement failed. The marquis was killed. The lady's family was very powerful, and my father fled to England." He went on to tell how the outlawed Frenchman had started a dancing class. He taught the young ladies in noble English families, and so had married an English waiting maid. Gaston Dubarre was their son.

The girl seemed to lose interest after she had found all this. She listened, though, when the Frenchman went on volubly to explain that he had followed his father's trade and had taken up where the older Dubarre left off.

Thoroughly disgusted, Miss Percy turned back into the hut. She turned just in time to intercept a look that flashed from Dubarre to Pierre and back again. The girl caught her breath and walked straight up to the

"That was a most unusual luncheon, mademoiselle. He did not lie."

The girl flushed angry at the broad compliment.

"When can you begin your duties, Master Dubarre?" she said stiffly.

"At once if only I could move my command to the castle."

"Comrade?"

"Yes, mademoiselle." He turned, pointing over to one corner, and for the first time the girls saw another man, a big fellow, lying on a bed of moss apparently asleep. "Poor Pierre! He plays the harp for me while I teach the steps. This morning coming down to a little for he stumbled. The heavy harp on his back buried him down so much the harder. His head struck a stone. See?"

The dancing master stepped across to the moss bed, and Miss Percy followed him.

"Oh, it is horrible! Will he live?" the girl exclaimed when she saw the long gash running across the man's forehead at the roots of his hair.

Dubarre shrugged his shoulders again. "It is nothing. We French know much. I bound up the wound. Then we came on to this hut. Pierre was tired from the blood letting. I from carrying the harp. We stopped, and I sang him to sleep."

"But he must be carried to the house. He'll be too weak to walk. Here, Eff!"

—Miss Percy turned impulsively to her friend—"Ride you to the castle. Sir John Wilmerding and Captain Thorncliffe will be there waiting us. Tell Sir John I say to bring a litter for this wounded man. I will wait here and tend him if he wakes. Men know nothing about such things."

The Frenchman regarded her for a few moments in silence. "You are very good, mademoiselle," he said at last.

Ethel Courtleigh was on her horse riding along the road across the view to her destination a mile away. And as she rode she smiled to herself to think how Sir John Wilmerding, the handsomest, the proudest man in the county, would receive that command to bring out a litter and help carry in an unnamed, unknown, low born assistant to a wandering, renegade French dancing master. But Sir John Wilmerding would obey. Miss Percy Courtleigh knew that, for it was not recorded when any one—and Sir John last of all—had ever thought of disobeying the imperious little "toast" of the county.

None in that part of England was more powerful than the Percys. Sir Henry of "the castle" was the family head, and his daughter, Miss May, had ruled too long a queen not to command absolute obedience. And so the smiling messenger delivered her command and two men, lavishly cursing, hurried about to obey the latest whimsical wish of their sovereign.

Out in the hut Pierre was slowly reviving. The girl had Dubarre bring her water in his hat from the brook that rushed noisily before the door, and using her own handkerchief, she washed daintily and bound up the

F. C. COOK & COMPANY

The Christmas Gift Store

WHERE can there be found so many things appropriate for Christmas gifts as are shown in a Jewelry store. In a stock such as is represented here the modest yet handsome article abounds as well as the more gorgeous rich items which go to meet the requirements of all the public. It is generally conceded that the gift which brings greatest appreciation is that which ordinarily would not be purchased by the recipient. The suggestions and descriptions given here can only be considered as mentions, to realize fully the extent of this stock one must visit our store.

Silverware Is Up

The wholesale price on silver has advanced 15 per cent, but we have not raised our prices. We bought before the advance and give our customers the benefit. Such a large variety of beautiful solid silver is not seen outside the large cities, and this season staple items as well as the novelties embody the prettiest of patterns.

Solid Silver Toilet Sets, 3 piece, $12 to $18.
Solid Silver Knives, set of 6, $10 to $12.
Solid Silver Forks, set of 6, $9 and up.
Single piece, $1.50.
Solid Silver Butter Spreads, set of 6, $6 and up.
Solid Silver Manicure Sets, $8 and up—7 piece set.
Solid Silver Carving Sets, $4 and up.
Sets of Oyster Forks, Sets of Salad Forks, Sets of Sugar Shells, Sets of Bullion Spoons, Sets of Soup Spoons, Sets of Berry Spoons.

Baking Dishes, Shaving Mugs, Bread Trays, Single Forks and Spoons, Food Pushers, Baby Paj Spoons, Beautiful Solid Silver Spoons 75c

In fact everything in table silver, either in sets or individual pieces. Solid silver novelties galore. The most pleasing feature about silver for gifts is the moderate price. Single pieces and silver novelties are within the reach of the most economical.

We show an enormous line of plated ware of every description in sets or single pieces.

Clocks

Beautiful gold and bronze finish clocks for the dresser; newest patterns to fit every fancy, nice clocks at $1.50, others at $2, $3, $4, $5, $6. Glass and brass mantel clocks, very fine movement, elegant timepieces, $15 and up to $22. Mantel Clocks in the popular old mahogany finish, $4.50 and up to $6.50, etc.

Watches

It has always been the aim of this store to lead in the watch business and the almost endless assortment of timepieces offered now for holiday purchase is but an indication of our known prestige. Ladies' Gold Filled Watches, $15 to $20 and up. Solid Gold Watches as low as $25 and upwards to $50, to suit your pocket. Our Watch stock consists of the leading makes: Elgin, Waltham, etc.

FOR THE BOY—A Watch that keeps time and makes the youngster's heart glad, at $1, $1.50, $2, $2.50, $3 and $3.50.

Beautiful Chateaux Watches, Enamel, etc. New stock for ladies.

GIRLS LIKE TIMEKEEPERS ALSO—Splendid line of convenient size Watches $4 up to $10. Beautiful, Chateaux Watches, solid silver and handsome enamel with Pin and Hook for the dress, $10 and up to $15. Ingersoll Watches for girls $2.

Novelties

A store full of overflowing of valuable articles, new and novel, a few of them here: Silver Novelties, $300 up, comprising Manicure Articles, Tooth Brushes, Desk Articles, Clothes Brushes, Military Brushes, etc. Solid Silver Toilet Sets of 3 pieces, Comb, Brush and Mirror, massive, rich patterns, $10 up to $15. Carving Sets, beautiful stag or solid silver handles, 2 and 3-piece sets, $2.50, $3, $4 and $4.50. 3-piece sets, solid sterling silver, rich patterns, $6.00. Jewel Cases, gold and gold finish, copper and old brass effects, satin lined, dainty now ideas, $1.00 and up. Deposit Silverware, Dresser Bottles, Flasks, Vases, etc., $1.25, $2.50, etc. Cuff Buttons, Fancy Mirrors, Old Brass French Plate Mirrors in the new flowered designs, at $3, others up to $8.

Rich Cut Glass

A whole case full of rich deep cut Cut Glass of the daintiest, prettiest patterns. PRICES ARE MODERATE. Individual Salts, 25c; Knife Rests, 50c; Nappies—pretty odd shaped dishes, $1.25; Cream and Sugars, per set, $2.50 to $5; Tumblers, one-half dozen set, $3; Coblets, beautiful goods, per set, one-half dozen, $10.

Bowls, nice variety, $2.50 and upwards.

Vinegars, handsome, $1.50.

Beautiful Water Sets, pitcher and 6 glasses, $16.50.

Vases, Celery Dishes, etc., etc.

Rings and Jewelry

The desire which cannot be filled exactly both as to price and pattern from this stock of Rings and Jewelry is not to be found in Rock county. In Rings, be it diamond, pearl, ruby, sapphire, emerald, or any precious stone, or the plainer sort, you find in this assortment a variety suitable to your wish.

BROOCHES—A lot of new ones, delightful to look at; pearl or diamond settings, or beautiful enamel. We have them in solid gold at $3, others up to $50.

SCARF PINS—This line is most complete and embodies all the new patterns and ideas of 1906.

BRACELETS ARE POPULAR—Solid gold with diamond settings, rich patterns, $30 and $35; solid gold at $8 to $12. Gold filled Bracelets, largest line ever displayed here, $2 up to $6. Gold Crosses, solid, $1.50. Solid gold diamond settings, $5 to $25; plain solid gold; $4.50 and up. Stick Pins, Gold Chains, Watch Fobs, etc., etc.

Eye Glasses

Buy the glasses now for the one to whom you desire to make the gift and have the eyes tested and fitted by our expert optician, J. F. Bounnerschlem. No more appropriate gift can be given than a nice pair of gold Spectacles or Eye Glasses properly fitted.

Umbrellas

The new detachable handle silk Umbrella. Handle removed instantly, locks absolutely; handiest for traveling; fits the trunk or suitcase. Large stock of these umbrellas, all style handles, all silk material, prices $2.50 to $10.

Every day sees new additions to our stock of Christmas things. There are values of the notable sort—the kind that make gift giving a real economy as well as rare pleasure.

THIS IS THE TIME of year when its good policy to keep your feet warm and dry.

MANY colds are caused by damp, cold feet, and a cold in the winter time is apt to lead to something serious.

For Men Only --- THE BOSTONIAN SHOE

A shoe that is being worn by thousands of men, the world over, and with great satisfaction everywhere. They are made in Patent Velour, Vici Kid, lace and blucher style, and $3.50, $4.00 the price is for those who have tender feet. The peculiar construction of the soles makes them especially adapted to damp weather. Price $5

There's no shoe like DR. REED'S --- Health Producing Shoe,

"QUEEN QUALITY" Shoe for Women.

A splendid shoe that comes in Patent colt, Kid and Gun Metal; turns and welts, heavy and light soles

At $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00.

RUBBERS !---RUBBERS !

FOR LADIES we have, Fleece lined rubbers, Buckle overshoes, High Cut Storm rubbers, Low rubbers, Storm Alaskas.

Rubber Boots for Men, and Storm Alaskas, Buckle Overshoes, extra warm, Men's Beacon Gaiters, 3 and 4 buckle, High Cut Storm rubbers, Self acting in both Storm Alaskas and Unlined rubbers.

AMOS REHBERG & CO.

Two Stores
Clothing & Shoes

On the Bridge
Janesville Wis

J.M. BOSTWICK & SONS.

A Few Remarks

As an extra inducement to women who are thinking of getting a new

CLOAK

We are offering all of our cloth garments at prices which mean a saving of several dollars.

Our stock is in excellent condition for large selling. We are well equipped with

Styles and Sizes for Women.

Misses'

Children

Don't put off coming, do it now. It will pay one.

Largest and most complete stock of Winter garments in Southern Wisconsin

BORT, BAILEY & CO.

A SPECIAL LINE OF FUR SCARFS and MUFFS

... FOR GIFTS ...

Everything that is new and desirable in Scarfs, Muffs and Neck pieces in dependable Furs are here ready for your selection.

We are Especially Strong on GRAY SIBERIAN SQUIRREL Scarfs, Prices $4, $5, $7.50, $10 and $12.50. Muffs to Match $8.00 to $14.00

Japanese Mink Scarfs are in great demand. We show a complete line in all the new shapes. Prices $5.00, $6.50, $7.50, $10, $12.50 and $15.

Genuine Isabella and Sable Fox Scarfs In the long, medium and short lengths, round and flat shapes, with long fluffy tails at $9.00 to $25.00. Muffs to Match at $8.00 to $18.00.

ONE WORD ABOUT PRICES

We want every lady who buys a piece of Fur of us to be so well pleased that she will say a good word to her friends about our Fur Department, and we are going to make the prices SO LOW that if you are a person of judgment you will know that the values are way below all former prices.

Furs will be laid aside until Christmas on partial payments

BORT, BAILEY & CO.